RESOLVES

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-second Legislature

1945

Whereas, in the judgment of the legislature these facts create an emergency within the meaning of section 16 of Article XXXI of the constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore, be it

Election validated and affirmed. Resolved: That the election of said James Lewis and Harold Francis as governor and lieutenant governor of the Penobscot Tribe of Indians respectively and the election of Horace Polchies as representative at the legislature of said Indian tribe at said election held on the 1st Tuesday of November, 1944 is hereby legalized and affirmed for terms ending on the 1st Tuesday of September, 1946, in the cases of the governor and lieutenant governor and for the term of 2 years in the case of Horace Polchies, as representative at the legislature.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this resolve shall take effect when approved.

Effective February 19, 1945

Chapter 2

RESOLVE, in Favor of John H. Perkins of Brunswick.

Screening private pond. Resolved: That the commissioner of inland fisheries and game be, and hereby is, directed to issue a rule and regulation permitting John H. Perkins of Brunswick, in the county of Cumberland, to place fish screens at the entrance and exit of the privately constructed pond located on his land. The pond was constructed by damming the small stream known as Thompson's brook and said screens shall be placed therein under the supervision of the commissioner of inland fisheries and game.

Effective July 21, 1945
