PUBLIC, 1947

CHAP. 56

the controller, may pay to the town or plantation in which such property is situated such sum as may be determined, as hereinafter provided, toward compensating said town or plantation for the loss of taxes on such property. The amount of said payment shall be determined by the commissioner of agriculture, the state tax assessor and the attorney-general, and in determining said amount said state officials shall take into consideration the amount of income, if any, derived by the state from any lease or tenancy of said property, the expense incurred by said town in opening and maintaining highways to said property, the number of pupils, if any, who are residing on said property and attending the public schools of said town or plantation and the cost of transporting them to and from such schools, which amount to be paid shall not in any one year exceed the revenue derived by said town or plantation from its tax on said property during the year preceding acquisition of title thereto by the state.'

Sec. 3. R. S., c. 163, § 25, amended. Section 25 of chapter 163 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto a new paragraph, to read as follows:

'All mortgages in the name of the state and made under the provisions of chapter 30 shall be collected, discharged or foreclosed in accordance with the provisions of this section.'

Sec. 4. R. S., c. 30, repealed. Chapter 30 of the revised statutes is hereby repealed.

Effective August 13, 1947
