Chapter 242

AN ACT Relating to Reciprocal Contracts of Indemnity.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 56, § 210, amended. Section 210 of chapter 56 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 210. Making contracts of indemnity between individuals to constitute the business of insurance; attorneys or agents to file a declaration, verified by oath. The making of contracts between individuals, firms or corporations, providing indemnity among themselves from casualty or other contingencies or from loss or damage to their own property, shall not constitute the business of insurance and shall not be subject to the laws of this state relating to insurance, except as provided in this section and the 7 following sections; provided, however, that the provisions of subsection III of section 41, requiring companies to do insurance business in this state by constituted agents resident herein subject to its laws, and the provisions of sections 249 to 256, inclusive, relating to insurance agents and brokers, shall not apply to the attorney-in-fact of a reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange nor to the traveling salaried home office representatives of such exchanges operating on a salary basis and receiving no commissions, but any reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange that operates under the agency system in this state and appoints agents on a commission basis shall be subject to and conform to the provisions of the sections
