Chapter 69

AN ACT Amending Subsection (e) of Section 5 of Chapter 69 of the Private and Special Laws of 1941, Relative to Eminent Domain Proceedings.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1941, c. 69, § 5, sub-§ (e), amended. Subsection (e) of section 5 of chapter 69 of the private and special laws of 1941, is hereby amended to read as follows:

'(e) If reasonable and fair conditions for the acquisition of property or rights as provided in the preceding subsection can not be agreed upon the property may be taken under condemnation proceedings in the same manner as provided in subsection (a) of this section, and in that event the county commissioners shall determine the reasonable and fair conditions for the acquisition of property or rights by the authority. The county commissioners of the county wherein such property or land is located shall constitute a board which shall on petition of the authority or interested parties meet and ascertain and determine the reasonable and fair conditions for the acquisition, make a correct return of their doings, signed by them, accompanied by an accurate plan of the land or situation involved. The county commissioners shall give reasonable notice to interested parties of the time and place of their meeting and afford interested parties an opportunity to be heard. Their return shall be filed with the clerk of the county commissioners and remain in the custody of their clerk for inspection. Any interested party aggrieved by their determination of reasonable and fair conditions may appeal from their determination to the superior court of the county at the next regular term of said court following the date of filing their return with their said clerk. If no such appeal is made, the proceedings shall be closed, and become effectual. If an appeal be taken at the time and in the manner provided herein, the court shall determine the reasonable and fair conditions for the acquisition and make its decree therefor. The appellant shall file notice of his appeal with the county commissioners within the time above limited, and at the first term of court shall file a complaint setting forth substantially the facts, upon which the case shall be heard by the court. From the action of the court or on exceptions, an appeal may be taken by any party to the supreme judicial court.'
