Chapter 163

AN ACT Relating to the Fort Fairfield Municipal Court.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1929, c. 67, amended. Chapter 67 of the private and special laws of 1929 is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 1. Fort Fairfield municipal court established; judge; recorder. A municipal court is hereby established at Fort Fairfield, in the county of Aroostook, which shall be called the Fort Fairfield municipal court. It shall be a court of record and have a seal. It shall consist of 1 judge and a recorder.

The judge shall reside at Fort Fairfield. He shall be appointed and shall give bond in accordance with the constitution and the laws of this state. His salary shall be $2,500 a year, to be paid monthly from the treasury of the county of Aroostook.

The recorder shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for a term of 4 years. He shall reside at Fort Fairfield. His salary shall be $1,000 a year, to be paid monthly from the treasury of the county of Aroostook. His duties shall include such duties as are performed by the clerks of the superior court, so far as applicable. He shall record the doings of the court in civil and criminal dockets, and he shall keep a separate docket of juvenile delinquency cases. He shall be the custodian of all money paid into court which he shall account for and pay over as required by law, and shall give bond to the county of Aroostook for the faithful performance of his duties in such sum and with such sureties as the county commissioners shall approve.

The recorder and the judge shall have equal authority in criminal cases to hear and draft complaints, administer oaths, take bail, and sign all processes of commitment. All processes issued by the recorder in criminal matters shall bear the seal of the court and be signed by him, and they shall have the same effect as though signed by the judge.

When the judge is absent from the court room, or is interested, or if the office of judge is vacant, it shall be the duty of the recorder and he shall have authority to exercise all the powers of the judge. In case of the recorder's absence or of a vacancy in the office of recorder, the judge may appoint a recorder who shall be sworn by the judge and act during such absence or until the vacancy is filled. If the judge and the recorder are both necessarily absent, either may designate some other municipal court judge or justice of the peace in said county to perform the functions of the court for the time being.

Sec. 2. Jurisdiction. This court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all offenses committed against the ordinances of the town of Fort Fairfield, and jurisdiction over all other matters, civil and criminal, in the county of Aroostook in accordance with the provisions of law which govern municipal courts in this state. The court may administer all necessary oaths, render judgment and issue execution, punish for contempt and compel attendance as is done in the superior court. All writs and processes shall be in the name of the state and bear the teste of the judge or of the recorder acting as judge, under the seal of the court. The rules of the superior court, as amended from time to time, that relate to actions at law, and are not limited by the public laws regulating municipal courts or by the provisions of this act, shall be the rules of the Fort Fairfield municipal court.

Sec. 3. Terms of court; civil and criminal. A civil term of this court shall be held the 3rd Tuesday of each month at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and shall not be adjourned thereafter until at least 3 days have elapsed; provided, however, that a term shall be held every Tuesday at 10 o'clock in the forenoon for the entry and trial of actions of forcible entry and detainer, which shall be in order for trial at the return day. Writs shall be filed in court on or before noon of the 1st day of each term; and no civil action shall be entered thereafter, unless by consent of the adverse party and by leave of the court, or unless the court shall allow the same upon proof that the entry was prevented by inevitable accident or for other sufficient causes. The court shall be in constant session for the cognizance of criminal offenses. All pleadings shall be the same as in the superior court.

Sec. 4. Appeals and removal of actions. In any civil action in which the debt or damage demanded exceeds $20, the defendant or his attorney may, on or before the 1st day of the 2nd term of said action, file in court a motion for the removal of said action to the superior court, and deposit with the recorder $2, whereupon the recorder shall cause certified copies of the writ, the officer's return, and the defendant's motion and all other papers in the case to be filed immediately in the superior court, and shall pay the entry fee thereof. Such actions shall then be entered on the docket of the term next preceding such filing, unless the superior court is then in session, in which case the action shall be entered forthwith.

If no motion for removal is filed, the municipal court shall proceed to determine said action, subject to the right of appeal in either party as provided by law.

Sec. 5. Location and expenses of court. The county commissioners shall provide a suitable place in Fort Fairfield for the holding of the court, and all expenses thereof shall be paid from the treasury of the county of Aroostook.'
