the damages in the manner provided by section 13. The board shall notify the interested parties by registered mail of the final decision of the board. ~~and any~~ Any person aggrieved by said assessment may ~~have the same determined as provided in section 39 of chapter 79~~ appeal therefrom to the superior court in the county where the land is situated within 30 days after the date of the receipt of the notice of award. The appellant shall file notice of his appeal with the state highway commission and said board, by registered mail within the time above limited, and at the 1st term of the court shall file a complaint setting forth substantially the facts, upon which the case shall be tried like other cases. The court shall determine the same by a committee of reference if the parties so agree, or by a verdict of its jury, and shall render judgment for the damages recovered, and judgment for costs in favor of the party entitled thereto, and shall issue execution for the costs only. The clerk shall certify the final judgment of the court to said board, who shall enter the same of record, and order the damages therein recovered to be paid by the treasurer of state. The party prevailing recovers costs to be taxed and allowed by the court, except that they shall not be recovered by the party claiming damages, but by the other party, if on such appeal by either party said claimant fails to recover a greater sum as damages than was allowed to him by the board. The committee shall be allowed a reasonable compensation for their services to be fixed by the court upon the presentation of their report and paid by the treasurer of state upon the certificate of the clerk of courts. Whenever the commission shall lay out, establish and open a new highway as a state or state aid highway, the damages sustained by the owner of any land through which said highway passes shall be determined, assessed and apportioned as provided in section 13, and any person aggrieved by such award may have the damages determined as hereinbefore provided in cases of altering, widening or changing of grade.

Effective August 6, 1949
