PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-fourth Legislature

1949

'Sec. 230. Amount of aid. The department shall confer with the municipal board in deciding all matters in question. If, after said conference, the department decides that the applicant is entitled to aid, it shall then determine the character and amount. The amount of aid which shall be granted for any dependent child shall be determined with due regard to the resources and necessary expenditures of the family and the conditions existing in each case on a budgetary basis in accordance with the rules and regulations of the department and shall be sufficient, when added to all other income and support available to the child, to provide such child with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health but not exceeding $50 per month for such dependent child, or, if there is more than one such child in one family, then not exceeding $50 per month for the first such child, $25 per month for the second such child and $20 per month for each additional such child, plus such sums as may be necessary for extraordinary dental, surgical and medical expenses. Payments shall be made semi-monthly.'

Sec. 2. P. L., 1949, c. 60, § 3, repealed; limitation. Section 3 of chapter 60 of the public laws of 1949, heretofore passed by this legislature, amending section 230 of chapter 22 of the revised statutes, is hereby repealed and shall not be printed as part of the session laws of 1949.

Effective August 6, 1949

Chapter 368

AN ACT Relating to Automobile Travel by State Employees.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 14, § 28, repealed and replaced. Section 28 of chapter 14 of the revised statutes is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 28. Payment per mile for use of privately owned automobiles, regulated. The state shall pay for the use of privately owned automobiles for travel by employees of the state in the business of the state not more than 8c per mile for the first 5,000 miles actually travelled by such employees on such business in any 1 fiscal year, and not more than 5c for the next 9,000 miles and not more than 4c for each mile exceeding 14,000 miles; provided, however, that the state shall pay inspectors of seed potatoes 7c for every mile so travelled. Provided further, that the rate may be set by the travel supervisor at not exceeding 10c per mile on any one trip when more than 1 passenger from one or more departments are assigned by the travel supervisor and that the charges for such mileage shall be apportioned by the travel supervisor to the various departments involved.'

Effective August 6, 1949

Chapter 369

AN ACT Relating to Compensation of Justices of the Supreme Judicial and the Superior Courts Upon Retirement.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 91, § 5, repealed and replaced. Section 5 of chapter 91 of the revised statutes is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 5. Compensation of justices upon retirement. Any justice of the supreme judicial court who resigns his office, or ceases to serve at the expiration of any term thereof, after attaining the age of 70 years and after having served as a justice on either the supreme judicial court or the superior court, or both, for at least 7 consecutive years, shall receive annually during the remainder of his life, whether or not he is appointed an active retired justice as provided in the following section, an amount equal to $\frac{3}{4}$ of the salary which was being paid to him at the termination of his service, to be paid in the same manner as the salaries of the justices of said court are paid; provided, however, that such justice shall terminate his service before his 71st birthday, unless he be a justice who has attained or hereafter shall attain the age of 70 years during his continuance in office as such justice under an appointment made prior to 90 days after the adjournment of the 94th legislature in regular session, in which case to be entitled to compensation as aforesaid he shall terminate his service before his 72nd birthday. Any justice who continues to serve until or after the birthday applicable to the termination of his service, as aforesaid, shall waive his right to the compensation hereinbefore mentioned and make no claim therefor at the termination of his service, and the right of any justice drawing such compensation to continue to receive it shall cease immediately if he acts as attorney or counsellor in any action or legal proceeding in which the state is an adverse party or has any interest adverse to the person or persons in whose behalf he acts.'

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 94, § 3, repealed and replaced. Section 3 of chapter 94 of the revised statutes is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:
