PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-fourth Legislature

1949

II. The inspection certificate for the involved elevator shall be summarily revoked until the supervising inspector or a state or authorized elevator inspector directed so to do by him shall have inspected the conveyance or shall have again made valid its inspection certificate.

Sec. 99-Q. Commissioner may examine into cause and origin of all accidents. The commissioner may, whenever he deems it expedient or advisable, examine or cause to be examined the cause, circumstances and origin of all elevator accidents within the state, of which he has knowledge. Upon request he shall furnish to the proper county attorney the names of witnesses and all information obtained by him.'

Chapter 375

AN ACT Defining Agricultural Fair Associations and Societies.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 27, § 16, amended. Section 16 of chapter 27 of the revised statutes, as amended by section 1 of chapter 361 of the public laws of 1945, and by section 2 of chapter 366 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby further amended by inserting before the 2nd paragraph from the end thereof, the following:

'A society within the meaning of this section to qualify for a stipend shall mean:

- I. A society which has an agricultural display of the products of agriculture, typical of the area at the time the fair is held;
- II. A society which pays a minimum of $300 on premiums, exclusive of those for horse and ox pulling contests;
- III. A society which has not less than 10 stockholders or members, or the primary purpose of which is not profit to be distributed to its members or stockholders.'
