Chapter 46

AN ACT Relating to Park and Recreation Commission of City of South Portland.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1933, c. 55, Article 12, § 7, amended. Section 7 of Article 12 of chapter 55 of the private and special laws of 1933, as enacted by chapter 61 of the private and special laws of 1945, is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 7. Borrow money. Said commission ~~in the name of the city~~, with the approval by vote of the city council, shall have the power to borrow money and give notes or other evidences of indebtedness therefor, to carry on the work herein designated, which shall be repaid out of the fund herein established, but the city shall not be liable for the payment of any money so borrowed beyond the amount in said fund or deposited in said fund from time to time under the provisions of ~~section~~ sections 8 and 9 hereof. Any money borrowed by vote of the commission shall be repaid from said fund in the manner provided under the terms of the loan, and any installment, when due and payable, shall be a first lien on said fund.'

Effective August 6, 1949

AN ACT to Incorporate the Trustees of Franco American Oblate Fathers.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Trustees of Franco American Oblate Fathers incorporated. Eugene J. LaBrie, Arthur W. St. Cyr, Lucien Dufault, Joseph Morrissette, Maurice Savard, Leo Desmarais and Anatole Baillargeon, their associates and successors, are hereby appointed and constituted trustees of a body politic and corporate to be known as the Franco American Oblate Fathers, Inc., which shall be and remain a charitable, religious and educational body corporate by that name forever.

Sec. 2. Powers; privileges; seal; by-laws; hold property. Said corporation is hereby vested with all the rights, privileges and immunities incident to like and similar corporations; may have and use a common seal; prosecute and defend suits at law and in equity; make, ordain and establish by-laws and regulations not repugnant to the laws of this state for the conduct and management of its affairs; and hold real and personal property which it may now have or hereafter receive by gift, grant, devise, purchase or otherwise.

Sec. 3. Institution of higher learning; degrees. Said corporation is further empowered and authorized to establish, maintain and conduct at Bar Harbor, within this state, an institution of higher learning to be known as the Oblate College and Seminary; and to provide in said Oblate College and Seminary instruction in such languages and of the liberal and useful arts and sciences, including, but not limited to, courses in the humanities, mathematics, the natural and social sciences, philosophy, theology and the sacred sciences, as the said trustees of said corporation shall from time to time determine; and to grant and confer at and through said Oblate College and Seminary the academic degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science, and honors as are usually granted and conferred by institutions of higher learning.

Sec. 4. Meetings; officers; rules and regulations. Any of the persons named in section 1 of this act may, after approval of this act, call the first meeting of the trustees of the Franco American Oblate Fathers, Inc., by giving each of the other persons named at least 10 days' notice in writing of the time and place of said meeting; and the said trustees may at said first meeting organize their body by the election of a president of the board, a treasurer, a secretary, and all other necessary officers by a majority ballot. The terms of the respective members as trustees, and of the officers of the corporation, may be provided for and established either by vote of the majority of the trustees, or under a by-law of the corporation. All other rules and regulations for the government and conduct of the affairs of the corporation may be promulgated either by vote of the majority of the trustees, or by the adoption of a by-law of the corporation.
