after entering the intersection the left turn shall be made so as to leave the intersection to the right of the center line of the roadway being entered. Whenever practicable the left turn shall be made in that portion of the intersection to the left of the center of the intersection.

III. Left turns on other than two-way roadways. At any intersection where traffic is restricted to one direction on one or more of the roadways, the driver of a vehicle intending to turn left at any such intersection shall approach the intersection in the extreme left-hand lane lawfully available to traffic moving in the direction of travel of such vehicle and after entering the intersection the left turn shall be made so as to leave the intersection, as nearly as practicable, in the left-hand lane lawfully available to traffic moving in such direction upon the roadway being entered.

Local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may cause markers, buttons or signs to be placed within or adjacent to intersections, and thereby require and direct that a different course from that specified in this section be traveled by vehicles turning at an intersection, and when markers, buttons or signs are so placed no driver of a vehicle shall turn a vehicle at an intersection other than as directed and required by such markers, buttons or signs.'

Chapter 23

AN ACT Relating to Supplementary Tax Assessments.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 14, § 72, amended. Section 72 of chapter 14 of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby further amended by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph, to read as follows:

'The state tax assessor shall also make a supplementary assessment of any state, county or forestry district tax on lands in unorganized territory omitted by error from the last previous state valuation, and of buildings located in unorganized territory built since the last previous state valuation. Such supplementary assessment shall be based on the valuation to be established by the board of equalization.'

Effective August 20, 1951
