PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-fifth Legislature

1951

Chapter 30

AN ACT Relating to Road Equipment on Private Ways.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 84, § 31-A, repealed and replaced. Section 31-A of chapter 84 of the revised statutes, as enacted by chapter 433 of the public laws of 1949, is hereby repealed and the following section enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 31-A. Use of highway equipment on private ways. The inhabitants of any town or village corporation at a legal town or village corporation meeting may authorize the selectmen or assessors of a village corporation of said town and village corporation to use its highway equipment on private ways within such town or village corporation whenever such selectmen or assessors of a village corporation deem it advisable in the best interests of the town or village corporation for fire and police protection.'

Effective August 20, 1951

Chapter 31

AN ACT Requiring Information from Banks to Institutional Service.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 82, § 44, amended. Section 44 of chapter 82 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 44. Banks, etc., to furnish information. A treasurer of any bank, trust company, benefit association, insurance company, safe deposit company, or any corporation or association receiving deposits of money, except national banks, shall, on request in writing signed by a member of the board of overseers of the poor of any town or city or its agents, or by the commissioner of health and welfare or his agents or by the commissioner of institutional service or his agents, inform such board of overseers of the poor or the department of health and welfare or the department of institutional service of the amount deposited in the corporation or association to the credit of the person named in such request, who is a charge upon such town or city or the state, or who has applied for support to such town or city or the state. Whoever wilfully renders false information in reply to such request shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25, nor more than $100, to be recovered on complaint in any court of competent jurisdiction for the use of the town, city or the state making the request.'

Effective August 20, 1951
