PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-fifth Legislature

1951

All other flats within the limits of the town of Lubec shall be open to the digging of clams to and including October 31, 1952.

The flats described in the 1st paragraph shall be open to dig clams November 1, 1952 and the flats described in the 2nd paragraph shall be closed November 1, 1952. Both described flats shall be opened and closed alternately from year to year. It is not intended to interfere with clam flats already closed by law, within the limits of the town of Lubec.

Whoever violates the provisions of this section shall for each offense be punished by a fine of not less than $10, nor more than $100, or by imprisonment for not more than 60 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.'

Effective August 20, 1951

Chapter 120

AN ACT Relating to Subjects to be Taught in Public Schools.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 37, § 3, sub-§ VII, amended. Subsection VII of section 3 of chapter 37 of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

'VII. To prescribe the studies to be taught in the public schools and in private schools approved for attendance and tuition purposes, reserving to superintending school committees, trustees or other officers in charge of such public or private schools the right to prescribe additional studies, and the course of study prescribed by the commissioner shall be followed in all public schools and in all private schools approved by the said commissioner for attendance or tuition purposes; provided, however, that upon the approval by the said commissioner of any course arranged by the superintending school committee of any town, or by the trustees or other officers of any private school, said course shall be the authorized course for said town or private school; provided further, that the basic language of instruction in all schools, public and private, shall be the English language; and provided further, that American history and civil government, including the constitution of the United States and the declaration of independence, the importance of voting and the privileges and responsibilities of citizenship, shall be taught in all schools of elementary and secondary grades, both public and private, and that American history and civil government shall be required for graduation from all elementary schools, both public and private. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the teaching in elementary schools of any language as such;'
