the taking of scallops for commercial purposes shall first procure from the commissioner a written license therefor.

Such a license, designated as a scallop fishing license, may be issued to any person who has been for 3 years prior to the date of his application a legal resident of the state and shall entitle the holder to take scallops for commercial purposes at times and in places permitted by law; provided, however, if at the time of application he shall hold either a commercial shellfish license, a lobster and crab fishing license or a commercial fishing license, the fee paid for any one of these licenses that he may designate may be applied towards the fee for a scallop fishing license. The holder of a scallop fishing license shall not be required to procure a resident commercial fishing license, but shall be entitled to all privileges of the same by virtue of such scallop fishing license.

The fee for such scallop fishing license shall be $10 for the operator of the boat and a crew of 1 man; $12.50 for the operator of the boat and a crew of 2 men; and $15 for the operator of the boat and a crew of 3 or more men.

By virtue of such scallop fishing license, no crewman shall be required to have any other license issued under the provisions of this chapter.'

Effective August 20, 1951

Chapter 152

AN ACT Relating to Non-Resident Commercial Fishing Licenses.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 34, § 51, repealed and replaced. Section 51 of chapter 34 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 51. Non-resident commercial fishing license. No non-resident of the state shall take, catch or kill for commercial purposes any species of fish in Maine coastal waters until he has first procured from the commissioner a non-resident commercial fishing license. The fee for said license shall be $50 and shall entitle the holder to take all species of fish except shellfish, lobsters and scallops.'
