laws of 1949, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following sentence:

'The words "regularly established place of business" are herein defined to mean a place of business open to the public at least 5 days a week for not less than 6 hours daily and having one or more persons in charge thereof.'

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 88, § 99-C, repealed and replaced. Section 99-C of chapter 88 of the revised statutes, as enacted by section 3 of chapter 434 of the public laws of 1949, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 99-C. Application. Application for an itinerant photographer's license shall be made in writing to the secretary of state upon blanks prepared by him for that purpose. In case of persons, the application shall contain the name, age, residence and address, and the name and address of the principal place of business of his employer or principal. In case of corporations, the application shall contain the name, address of principal place of business, names of the officers, and further shall state that it does not have a regularly established business within the state. The license fee shall be paid when the application is filed. Upon complaint of any person to the secretary of state that any other person, firm or corporation is in the business of photography without having a regularly established place of business within the state, the secretary of state shall make inquiry and the person, firm or corporation complained of shall forthwith notify the secretary of state as to the location of the claimed regularly established place of business.'

Chapter 169

AN ACT Relating to Trustee of Wages.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 101, § 55, sub-§ VI, amended. Subsection VI of section 55 of chapter 101 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'VI. By reason of any amount due from him to the principal defendant, as wages for his personal labor, or that of his wife or minor children, for a time not exceeding 1 month next preceding the service of the process, and not exceeding ~~$20~~ $30 of the amount due and payable to him as wages for his personal labor; and $10 shall be exempt in all cases;

moreover, wages of minor children and of women are not, in any case, subject to trustee process on account of any debt of parent or husband; if, after wages for personal labor or services have been attached and before entry of the writ, the defendant tenders to the plaintiff or to his attorney the whole amount due and recoverable in the action and the fees of the officer for serving the writ, the plaintiff shall recover no costs, except the fees of the officer; and if the defendant is defaulted without an appearance or if he files an offer of judgment on the return day of the writ, and the plaintiff accepts such offer or fails to secure more than the amount thereof and of the interest thereon from its date, the plaintiff shall recover no costs, except the entry fee and the officers' fees. The trustee shall pay to the defendant the amount exempt from attachment at the same time and in the same manner as if no process had been served.'

Effective August 20, 1951

Chapter 170

AN ACT Relating to the Rights of Minority Stockholders.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 49, § 84, repealed and replaced. Section 84 of chapter 49 of the revised statutes is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 84. Either party may appeal to the law court; appellant to have lien on property of corporation. Within 30 days after filing the decree determining such values as aforesaid, either party may enter an appeal therefrom to the law court as in the case of ordinary bills in equity. If a stockholder is an appellant, he shall have a lien upon all the property of the corporation until 30 days after judgment on appeal for the amount of his award. Such lien shall have precedence over any mortgages or leases made after any vote of sale, lease or consolidation. All such liens may be released upon filing with the court a bond in such amount and with such sureties as the court may approve. Two or more stockholders may join in the same appeal.'

Effective August 20, 1951
