PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-fifth Legislature

1951

directly or indirectly require that the person, firm or corporation, for whom such purchase is to be financed or to whom the money is to be loaned, or for whom such extension, renewal or other act is to be granted or performed, negotiate any policy of insurance or renewal thereof covering such property through a particular insurance company, or insurance agent or broker, as a condition precedent to financing the purchase of such property or to loaning money upon the security of a mortgage thereon, or as a condition prerequisite for the renewal or extension of any such loan or mortgage, or for the performance of any act in connection therewith. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to punishment by fine of not more than $100, or by imprisonment of not more than 60 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment and if he holds a license from the commissioner he shall forfeit the same. Any justice of the supreme judicial or superior court, in term time or vacation, on complaint by any person that the provisions of this section are being violated, may issue an injunction against such violation, and may hold in contempt and punish therefor in case of disregard of said injunction. This section shall not prevent the exercise by any such person, firm, corporation, trustee, director, officer, agent or employee of the right to approve or disapprove of the insurance company to underwrite the insurance.'

Chapter 193

AN ACT Relating to the Tagging of Beaver.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 33, § 100, amended. The 7th paragraph of section 100 of chapter 33 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended to read as follows:

'All beaver skins must be presented to the warden supervisor in whose division they were caught or a warden of that division authorized by the chief warden to tag and mark beaver and if said supervisor or warden is satisfied that the beaver presented were legally trapped in his division, he shall tag and mark the same in the manner as directed and with the materials furnished by the commissioner. A fee of $2 shall be paid by the trapper for each skin tagged and marked.'

Effective August 20, 1951
