Chapter 186

AN ACT Relating to the Town of York School District.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, the present buildings which house the schools of the town of York are overcrowded, inadequate and unsafe; and

Whereas, the overcrowded, inadequate and unsafe conditions of said school buildings are detrimental to the public health and safety; and

Whereas, new building construction is vitally necessary; and

Whereas, the borrowing capacity of said town will not allow it to borrow sufficient funds for said construction; and

Whereas, it is imperative that action be taken at the earliest possible moment to relieve these conditions; and

Whereas, in the opinion of counsel the act incorporating the town of York School District, being chapter 57 of the private and special laws of 1951, will not become effective until 90 days after adjournment of the legislature; and

Whereas, if this act cannot be voted upon until 90 days after adjournment of the legislature, construction of said school buildings will be delayed for another year; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1951, c. 57, amended. Chapter 57 of the private and special laws of 1951 is hereby amended by striking out the emergency preamble and inserting in place thereof the following:

'Emergency preamble. Whereas, the present buildings which house the schools of the town of York are overcrowded, inadequate and unsafe; and

Whereas, the overcrowded, inadequate and unsafe conditions of said school buildings are detrimental to the public health and safety; and

Whereas, new building construction is vitally necessary; and

Whereas, the borrowing capacity of said town will not allow it to borrow sufficient funds for said construction; and

Whereas, it is imperative that action be taken at the earliest possible moment to relieve these conditions; and

Whereas, if this act cannot be voted upon until 90 days after adjournment of the legislature, construction of said school buildings will be delayed for another year; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,'

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Effective May 11, 1951

Chapter 187
