Chapter 88

AN ACT Relating to the Licensing of Life Insurance Agents.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 56, § 252-D, sub-§ III, amended. Subsection III of section 252-D of chapter 56 of the revised statutes, as enacted by chapter 162 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby amended to read as follows:

'III. The application, when filed, shall be accompanied by the annual license fee in the amount of $2 and, in the case of applicants required to take an examination as hereinafter prescribed, by an examination fee in the amount of $5, except that the examination fee will be waived if the applicant pays the examination fee prescribed by section 252 and is examined on the same day for a license to solicit accident and health insurance and to act as a life insurance agent for the same company; and such examination fees shall be used solely for the purpose of conducting such examinations as are required by law. In the event an applicant fails to qualify for, or is refused a license, the annual license fee shall be returned to him; the examination fee shall not be returned for any reason.'

Effective August 8, 1953

AN ACT Relating to Advances to Officers for Interstate Travel Expenses Incurred in the Administration of Criminal Justice.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 137, § 2, amended. Section 2 of chapter 137 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto 2 new sentences, to read as follows:

'Any officer, which shall include any sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable or police officer, required in the performance of his duties in connection with the administration of criminal justice to incur expenses for or incidental to interstate travel which are payable by a county pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be entitled to draw on the treasurer of such county in advance on account of such expenses in an amount set forth in a written estimate thereof bearing endorsement of approval thereof by a justice of the superior court. Such officer shall be held accountable to said county for such advance.'

Effective August 8, 1953
