PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-sixth Legislature

1953

Chapter 173

AN ACT Relating to the Taking of Marine Worms in Georgetown.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts of the legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment; and

Whereas, it is vitally necessary that the following legislation be effective immediately in order to permit non-residents of Georgetown to take marine worms within the town of Georgetown; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 34, § 81, amended. Section 81 of chapter 34 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended by adding after the 2nd sentence thereof, a new sentence, to read as follows:

'Provided, however, that for the taking or digging of marine worms a license may be granted or issued to any person, firm or corporation not a resident of said town of Georgetown.'

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Effective April 17, 1953

Chapter 174

AN ACT Relating to Korean Campaign Veterans' Preference in State Employment.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, veterans, except those of the Korean Campaign, are given a preference in applying for state employment; and

Whereas, the people of Maine recognize the fact that all they own and all the privileges which they continue to enjoy, they owe to all those who have defended them on the field of battle; and
