PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-sixth Legislature

1953

Chapter 284

AN ACT Relating to Acceptance by State of Funds for Unorganized Territory Capital Working Fund.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 37, § 148-J, additional. Chapter 37 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be numbered 148-J, to read as follows:

'Sec. 148-J. Treasurer of state authorized to accept gifts, bequests and other funds. The treasurer of state is authorized to accept gifts, bequests and other funds from public or private agencies, subject to any conditions contained therein provided such conditions are approved by the state board of education, to be credited to the capital working fund. When any such gift, bequest or grant is made for a particularly designated purpose, the amount so received shall be used to reduce the total amount of capital outlay involved in the project designated and due to be returned to the fund as provided in section 148-C.'

Effective August 8, 1953

Chapter 285

AN ACT Relating to Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 113, § 6, repealed and replaced. Section 6 of chapter 113 of the revised statutes is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 6. Application. Application for such writ by any person shall be made to any justice of the supreme judicial court or superior court, regardless whether or not the supreme judicial court or superior court is in session. It shall be made returnable before such justice to whom application is made. If the writ is denied and an appeal taken to the law court, the person restrained may be admitted to bail within the discretion of the justice rendering judgment thereon, pending such appeal.'

Effective August 8, 1953
