Chapter 97

AN ACT Relating to Pensions for Firemen of the City of Bangor.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1915, c. 66, § 1, amended. The 3rd and 4th paragraphs of section 1 of chapter 66 of the private and special laws of 1915, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 99 of the private and special laws of 1923 and by chapter 77 of the private and special laws of 1951, and as amended, are hereby further amended to read as follows:

'Second: To any member of the fire department who has performed faithful service for a period of 20 or more years in a full time position in said department and who has attained the age of 60 years upon his application for such pension; ~~upon application of the city manager to the city council bearing the certificate of the civil service commission that said member is incapacitated for further useful service in said department;~~ or, to any such member who has performed faithful service for a period of 20 or more years in a full time position in said department and who has become incapacitated for further useful service; or to any member of said department in a full time position who has been or who shall have been certified in writing to the city council of said city by the city physician, or if required by said city council, by a majority of a disinterested board of 3 physicians chosen by said city council, as being permanently incapacitated from further performing his duties as such member by reason of injuries resulting from an accident arising out of and in the course of his employment as such member.

When any member of the fire department has attained the age of 65 years, he shall be deemed, for the purposes of this section, to be incapacitated for further useful service in said department.'

Effective August 8, 1953
