Chapter 116

AN ACT Amending the Charter of the People's Ferry Company.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1885, c. 495, § 10, repealed and replaced. Section 10 of chapter 495 of the private and special laws of 1885, as enacted by chapter 94 of the private and special laws of 1919, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 10. Maintenance of landings by other companies. No other ferry or steam or power boat line operating between Portland and the islands in Casco Bay shall make or maintain a landing place on Peak's Island, Great Diamond Island, Little Diamond Island, Long Island and Chebeague Island without the written consent of the public utilities commission; but nothing herein shall be construed to interfere with or impair the existing vested rights of any other transportation company. The People's ferry and the Casco Bay lines shall maintain safe daily service to the islands of Casco Bay under regulations promulgated by the public utilities commission as to rates, schedules and safety.'

Effective August 8, 1953

AN ACT Relating to the Town of Hampden School District.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, by virtue of chapter 138 of the private and special laws of 1945 the Town of Hampden School District was created and duly accepted by the voters of the town and has constructed a school building to care for all the elementary school students of the town excepting a small number who attend school in a small separate building known as the Hannibal Hamlin School; and

Whereas, only 13 class rooms are completed in the new school building owned by the district and 4 other class rooms with toilets, kitchen and cafeteria, with other small rooms are provided for in the plans but not yet completed because the borrowing capacity of the district is not large enough to enable the district to complete these rooms; and

Whereas, studies made by the school board show clearly that there will be a large enough increase in the number of students in the elementary
