Chapter 122

AN ACT Permitting the University of Maine to Provide Additional Educational Opportunities.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Educational contracts by trustees. The trustees of the University of Maine are hereby authorized to enter into contracts with other colleges and universities in other states and with private institutions of higher education within this state for the purpose of furnishing additional educational opportunities to any qualified student who is a resident of this state, in fields of study not provided for in the curricula of the university, and for the further purpose of furnishing such educational opportunities to similarly qualified students of colleges and universities in other states and private institutions of higher education within this state. Such contracts shall be approved by the governor and council, for a term not exceeding 2 years and within available appropriations. No student shall receive assistance for a period exceeding 4 years under the provisions of this act.

Effective August 8, 1953
