Chapter 106

AN ACT Relating to Tuberculosis Tests for Cattle.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 32, § 138, amended. Section 138 of chapter 32 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 138. Records; health certificates; sanitation of trucks and premises. Licensed livestock dealers shall keep records of transactions of cattle over 6 months of age by eartag number, or if not eartagged, by description; or by both eartag and description. They shall furnish a health certificate on all bulls and female cattle over 6 months of age sold to any person in the State except to recognized slaughtering establishments for immediate slaughter or to another licensed dealer.

Licensed dealers selling cattle over 6 months of age except as provided above shall furnish the purchaser with a health certificate showing the date of the last known test for Bang's disease and tuberculosis. If the last Bang's disease test was made over 30 days previously, he shall cause the cattle to be retested. ~~If the last tuberculosis test is unknown or was made before 3 years previous to the time of the transaction, he shall cause the cattle to be retested by an accredited veterinarian.~~ The form of health certificate and the issuance of the same shall be at the direction of the Commissioner or his duly authorized agent.

A licensed dealer shall at all times keep his motor vehicles or trucks and premises in a sanitary condition. No cattle known to be affected with tuberculosis or Bang's disease shall be transported in any vehicle with other cattle except those going directly for slaughter.

All motor vehicles, trucks or other conveyances used to transport known reactors to tuberculosis and Bang's disease shall be cleaned and disinfected before being used for the transportation of any other livestock.'

Effective August 20, 1955

Chapter 107

AN ACT Clarifying Laws on Slaughterhouses and Meat Processing Plants.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 32, § 248, amended. The 1st paragraph of section 248 of chapter 32 of the revised statutes is hereby repealed and the following paragraph enacted in place thereof:

'No person, firm, partnership, corporation, association or society shall operate a slaughterhouse or meat processing plant within the State of Maine unless such person, firm, partnership, corporation, association or society be licensed by the Commissioner of Agriculture. A license shall not be required of any farmer or other person who raises and slaughters his own domestic animals on his farm or premises for consumption or sale as human food, this being incidental to his general livelihood, nor of any retail sales establishment; nor the home kitchen operated only by the owner and his immediate family.
