Chapter 113

AN ACT Relating to Sporting Camps in Unorganized Territory.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 37, § 37, amended. The 2nd paragraph of section 37 of chapter 37 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Every person, maintaining a sporting camp within the territory described in the preceding paragraph, shall obtain a license from the Commissioner each calendar year, and shall pay therefor a fee of $5. The license shall not be issued unless the applicant files the written consent of the landowner or his agent upon whose property the sporting camp is located. Such written consent shall be filed once by the applicant, and so far as the particular applicant is concerned, it shall remain effective from year to year until the Commissioner is notified in writing by the landowner or applicant that the consent has been withdrawn. The holder of each license issued under the provisions of this section shall report the number of residents and nonresidents entertained in such camp, and shall furnish such other information relative to the natural resources of the State as the Commissioner may require, and shall file the same on or before the 15th day of December of each calendar year.'

Effective August 20, 1955
