Private and Special Laws

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-seventh Legislature

1955

The Corporation is authorized to place in the consolidated trust fund all the money and securities now held by it as trustee of any particular fund so merged. It shall have the same right to sell, convert, exchange, transfer or otherwise change or dispose of the assets of the consolidated trust as it now has with regard to the property constituting each separate fund so merged. Each separate fund so merged shall have at all times a proportionate undivided interest in the consolidated fund. The Corporation shall clearly designate upon its records each fund so merged and the extent of that interest. The income of the consolidated fund, after deduction of the expenses of administering it, shall be paid to the institutions or persons entitled to receive the same in proportion to the interest of each separate fund in the consolidated fund.

Any church or organization or institution connected with the Congregational-Christian denomination which holds a fund or funds in trust to further its purposes is authorized, upon consent of the trustees of the Corporation, to transfer to the Corporation any money or securities constituting such a fund or funds for management, and to authorize the same to be placed by said Corporation in said consolidated fund, each such trust fund to be treated and administered in the same way as separate trust funds held by the Corporation and merged in said consolidated fund.'
