Chapter 114

AN ACT Relating to the Wells and York Game Preserve.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 37, § 149, amended. That part of section 149 of chapter 37 of the Revised Statutes, as revised, which relates to Wells and York Game Preserve is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Wells and York Game Preserve Management Area: No person shall, except as herein provided, at any time, hunt, pursue, shoot at, molest or kill any wild animal or any game or wild bird within the following described territory situated in the towns of Wells and York in York county; beginning at a point on highway No. 1 where the Josias river meets said highway No. 1 in the town of Wells, thence southwesterly along said Josias river to the Maine turnpike in the town of York, thence northerly along said Maine turnpike to the Agamenticus road overpass; thence westerly across said overpass by Agamenticus road to the North Village road; thence northerly along said North Village road to Ogunquit-North Berwick road, thence easterly along said Ogunquit-North Berwick road to highway No. 1 in the town of Wells, thence southerly along highway No. 1 to the point of beginning in the town of Wells. It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any wild bird or wild animal taken in violation of any provision of this paragraph. The provisions of this paragraph shall not prohibit the Commissioner of Inland Fisheries and Game from regulating the taking of fur-bearing animals and vermin thereon.'

Effective August 28, 1957

Chapter 115

AN ACT Increasing Civil Jurisdiction of Municipal Courts.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 108, § 4, amended. Section 4 of chapter 108 of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 4. Jurisdiction. A municipal court shall not have jurisdiction in any civil matter unless a defendant resides within the county in which such court is established, or is a nonresident of the State and has personal service within the county, or a party summoned as trustee resides within the county, or property of the defendant is attached within the county in which such court is established; but in case of such personal service, trustee or attachment, such court shall have jurisdiction concurrent with the Superior Court and with all other municipal courts in the same county wherein it is established of all civil actions
