Emergency preamble. Whereas, there is uncertainty as to the legal interpretation of the present rules of descent; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 170, 1st ¶ and sub-§ I of § 1, repealed and replaced. The 1st paragraph and subsection I of section 1 of chapter 170 of the Revised Statutes are hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 1. Rules of descent. The real estate of a person deceased intestate, being subject to the payment of debts, including a woodlot or other land used with the farm or dwelling house although not cleared and also including wild lands of which he dies seized, but excepting wild lands conveyed by him, though afterwards cleared, descends according to the following rules:

I. If he leaves a widow and issue,  $\frac{1}{3}$  to the widow. If the deceased leaves no issue,  $\frac{1}{2}$  to the widow. If the deceased leaves no issue, and if it appears on determination as provided in section 20-A that he and the surviving widow were living together at the time of his decease

A. And the residue of the estate determined as provided in section 20-A is $10,000 or less, all of the real estate to the widow; or

B. If the residue of the estate determined as provided in section 20-A is more than \$10,000, of the real estate,  $\frac{2}{3}$  to the widow and  $\frac{1}{3}$  to the next of kin of equal degree, not beyond kin in the 2nd degree.

If no kindred within the 2nd degree, the whole to the widow; and to the widower shall descend the same shares in his wife's real estate. There shall likewise descend to the widow or widower the same share in all such real estate of which the deceased was seized during coverture, and which has not been barred or released as herein provided. In any event,  $\frac{1}{3}$  shall descend to the widow or widower free from payment of debts, except as provided in section 22 of chapter 163.'

A. If the residue found by the probate court as provided in section 20-A, was $10,000 or less, all of the remaining personal property, or and after such notice as the court shall order, and after hearing thereon taking into consideration the inventory in the estate and such other evidence as the court shall deem necessary, the court shall determine

A. That the deceased was or was not survived by a widow with whom he was living at the time of his decease.

B. That the deceased left issue or no issue.

C. The value of residue of the estate real and personal, at the date of death over and above the value of  $\frac{1}{3}$  the real estate, the amount necessary to pay the debts of the deceased, funeral charges and charges of administration and widow's allowance. Such decree of determination shall include a finding as to what part of decedant's estate passes to the widow and shall be binding upon all parties.

Within 30 days after such determination by the probate court, the register of probate shall file in the registry of deeds for the county or registry district in which any real estate of the deceased is situated, an attested copy of such decree, and the register of deeds shall receive and record the same as abstracts of wills are received and recorded. The fees for making and recording said copy shall be the same as for making and recording abstracts of wills.

If additional property is later discovered, the right or title to the estate covered by such decree shall not be affected thereby, but the court may make such further orders and decrees as are necessary to effect the distribution provided for in section 20.'

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.
