There is created within the Department of Institutional Service a State Probation and Parole Board consisting of 3 members who are citizens and residents of the State. Two of the members shall be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Council, from persons with special training or experience in law, sociology, psychology or related branches of social science. General Probation Provisions.

Sec. 6. Probation of person by court. When a person is convicted of an offense which is not punishable by life imprisonment, the Court may continue the case for sentence, suspend the imposition of sentence, or impose sentence and suspend its execution.

I. The Court may continue a case for sentence for not more than 2 years. While the case is continued for sentence, the Court may place the respondent on probation.

A. When a person is convicted of an offense which caused damage to another of not more than $100 for which civil liability has been established or admitted, the Court may continue the case for sentence and place the respondent on probation for a definite time, and may order that the respondent make restitution to the person injured.

II. The Court may suspend the imposition of a sentence for not more than 4 years and place the respondent on probation.

III. The Court may impose a sentence, suspend its execution for not more than 4 years and place the respondent on probation.

A. When a person is convicted of an offense which is punishable by imprisonment and fine, the Court may sentence him to a fine and a term of imprisonment, suspend execution of the imprisonment, and place him on probation as to the imprisonment on condition that he pay the fine within a definite time. In default of payment of the fine, the Court may impose an additional sentence of not more than 6 months.

B. When the probationer pays the fine or part of it to the Probation-Parole Officer, he shall give the probationer a receipt for it.

This section does not deprive a respondent of any existing right of appeal, review or retrial.

Sec. 7. Person on probation under jurisdiction of Court. A person on probation is under the sole jurisdiction of the Court which finally tried his case. When a person is placed on probation, he shall be committed by the Court to the custody and control of a Probation-Parole Officer. The Probation-Parole Officer has the same authority with respect to the probationer as if he were surety upon the recognizance of the probationer. The Court shall fix the duration of the probation, which may not be more than 4 years. The Court shall determine the conditions of the probation, and shall give the probationer a written statement containing the conditions of his probation. The probationer shall forthwith report to the Probation-Parole Officer and shall subsequently report to the Probation-Parole Officer as he may direct.

Sec. 8. Person violating probation. When a probationer violates a condition of his probation, the Probation-Parole Officer shall forthwith report the violation to the Court, or to a Justice of the Court in vacation, which may order the probationer returned. After hearing, the Court or Justice may revoke the probation and impose sentence if the case has been continued for sentence or if imposition of sentence has been suspended, or may order the probationer to serve the original sentence where its execution has been suspended.

Sec. 9. Person discharged from probation by Court. A person on probation may be discharged by the Court which placed him on probation.

I. When it appears to a Probation-Parole Officer that a probationer is no longer in need of his supervision, he may so report to the Court, or to a Justice of the Court in vacation, which may order the probationer returned. After hearing, the Court or Justice may terminate his probation and allow him to go without day.

II. When it appears to the Court that a probationer under its jurisdiction has fulfilled the conditions of his probation, it shall terminate his probation and allow him to go without day.

Sec. 10. Provisions governing juveniles. The following provisions apply to a juvenile:

I. When he has been arrested for any offense, the arresting officer shall notify forthwith his parent or legal custodian, and a Probation-Parole Officer of the arrest and time and place of trial.

II. When he is arrested and charged with an offense other than a felony, or an offense which if committed by an adult would be a felony, he shall be taken before a Bail Commissioner by the arresting officer without being committed to any jail or police station. The Bail Commissioner may accept, instead of bail, the written recognizance of his parent or legal custodian to produce him before the proper court at a specified time and place. If the recognizance is acceptable to the Bail Commissioner, the arresting officer shall place him in the custody of the person who executes it. When he is brought before the court, it may accept a similar recognizance for his subsequent production, or may order him committed to the custody and control of a Probation-Parole Officer to be kept and produced before the court at the time appointed. Whoever executes a recognizance and fails to produce the juvenile according to its terms is guilty of criminal contempt.

III. When he has been arrested for any offense and confined in a jail or police station, the proper court, on application of the Probation-Parole Officer, may issue a written order that he be placed forthwith in the custody of the Probation-Parole Officer pending trial.

IV. When he is brought before a court for trial charged with any offense which is not punishable by life imprisonment, the court may continue the case without trial for not more than one year and place him on probation. The court may discharge him without trial when it appears just to do so. A juvenile so discharged has no right of action against any person because of any proceedings in the case.

The probation of a juvenile is governed by the general law on probation where not specifically changed by this section.

Sec. 10-A. Probation of juveniles in Cumberland county. The probation of a juvenile in Cumberland county is expressly exempted from the general law on juvenile probation and nothing in this chapter shall affect or modify any special law pertaining to the appointment of juvenile probation officers and their duties within and for Cumberland county.

General Parole Provisions.

Sec. 11. Parole of person by Board. The Board may grant a parole from any State penal or correctional institution when a prisoner or inmate becomes eligible for parole. It may revoke a parole when a condition of the parole is violated.

I. When the Board grants a parole, it shall fix the duration and the conditions of the parole. The duration of the parole may be later increased or decreased, but it may not exceed 4 years.

II. A parolee is in the legal custody and control of the Board.

III. A parolee is deemed to be still serving his sentence and is entitled to deductions for good behavior.

Sec. 12. Person eligible for parole from State Prison. A prisoner becomes eligible for parole from State Prison as follows:

I. After the expiration of his minimum term of imprisonment less the deduction for good behavior, when the law provides for a minimum-maximum sentence.

II. After the expiration of $\frac{1}{2}$ of the term of imprisonment imposed by the Court less the deduction for good behavior, when he has been convicted of an offense under sections 10, 11 or 12 of chapter 130 or section 6 of chapter 134. The provisions of this subsection also apply to a prisoner who has been convicted previously of an offense under sections 10, 11 or 12 of chapter 130 or section 6 of chapter 134.

III. After the expiration of a 30-year term of imprisonment, when he has been convicted of an offense punishable only by life imprisonment, provided he has never been convicted of another offense punishable only by life imprisonment.

Sec. 13. Person eligible for parole from Reformatory. An inmate becomes eligible for parole from a Reformatory when all of the following conditions are fulfilled:

I. After the expiration of a 6-month term of commitment if convicted of a misdemeanor. After the expiration of a 1-year term of commitment if convicted of a felony.

A. A deduction of 7 days for each month served from the date of commitment may be allowed by the Superintendent of a Reformatory when the conduct of the inmate justifies it.

II. Upon the recommendation of the Superintendent to the Board for parole of the inmate, when the conduct of the inmate justifies it.

III. When some suitable employment or situation has been secured for him in advance.

Sec. 14. Person eligible for parole from State School. An inmate becomes eligible for parole from a State School when all of the following conditions are met:

I. Upon the recommendation of the Superintendent to the Board for parole of the inmate, when the conduct of the inmate justifies it.

II. When a suitable person or the Department of Health and Welfare will accept the inmate if paroled.

The Board may order a paroled inmate returned to the State School when it is satisfied that his welfare will be promoted in so doing. When an inmate is paroled to the Department of Health and Welfare, the expense of his support and education shall be borne by the State according to section 251 of chapter 25 and the Department has the same powers and duties as if the inmate had been committed under section 249 of chapter 25.

Sec. 15. Person violating parole. When a parolee violates a condition of his parole or violates the law, a member of the Board may authorize the Director in writing to issue a warrant for his arrest. A Probation-Parole Officer, or any other law enforcement officer within the State authorized to make arrests, may arrest the parolee on the warrant and return him to the institution from which he was paroled. At its next meeting at that institution, the Board shall hold a hearing. The parolee is entitled to appear and be heard. If the Board, after hearing, finds that the parolee has violated his parole or the law, it shall revoke his parole and remand him to the institution from which he was released. He shall serve his sentence according to the following provisions:

I. Sentence to State Prison.

A. If sentenced on a minimum-maximum basis, he is liable to serve the unexpired portion of his maximum sentence, forfeiting any deduction for good behavior during parole.

B. If sentenced to a definite term, he is liable to serve the unexpired portion of his sentence, forfeiting any deduction for good behavior during parole.

C. If sentenced to life imprisonment, he is liable to serve the unexpired portion of his sentence.

II. Sentence to Reformatory or State School.

A. He is liable to serve the unexpired portion of his sentence, forfeiting any deduction for good behavior during parole.

This section does not prevent the deduction for good behavior during the serving of the unexpired portion of the sentence, nor the re-parole of the prisoner or inmate in the discretion of the Board.

Sec. 16. Sentence for crime committed by paroled person. A parolee who commits an offense while on parole and is sentenced to a State penal or correctional institution shall serve the second sentence beginning on the date of termination of the first sentence, whether it is served or commuted.

Sec. 17. Final discharge of person from parole. A parolee who has faithfully performed all the conditions of his parole for the time fixed is deemed to have served his entire sentence and is entitled to a certificate of final discharge authorized by the Board and issued by the Warden or Superintendent in whose custody he was first committed.

Sec. 18. Record forwarded to State Police when certain persons paroled. When a person who has been convicted under sections 10, 11 or 12 of chapter 130 or section 6 of chapter 134 is paroled, the Warden or Superintendent of the institution shall forward to the State Police a copy of his record and a statement of facts necessary for full comprehension of the case.

Sec. 19. Pardons granted by Governor. This chapter does not deprive the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Council, of the power to grant a pardon or commutation to any person sentenced to a State penal or correctional institution.

Uniform Act for Out-of-State Parolee Supervision.

Sec. 20. Governor to execute a compact; title. The Governor of this State is authorized and directed to execute a compact on behalf of the State with any of the states of the United States legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

A COMPACT

Entered into by and among the contracting states, signatories hereto, with the consent of the Congress of the United States of America, granted by an act entitled "An Act Granting the Consent of Congress to any two or more States to enter into Agreements or Compacts for Cooperative Effort and Mutual Assistance in the Prevention of Crime and for other purposes."

The contracting states solemnly agree:

I. That it shall be competent for the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact, (herein called "sending state"), to permit any person convicted of an offense within such state and placed on probation or released on parole to reside in any other state party to this compact, (herein called "receiving state"), while on probation or parole, if

A. Such person is in fact a resident of or has his family residing within the receiving state and can obtain employment there;

B. Though not a resident of the receiving state and not having his family residing there, the receiving state consents to such person being sent there.

Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be granted to the receiving state to investigate the home and prospective employment of such person.

A resident of the receiving state, within the meaning of this section, is one who has been an actual inhabitant of such state continuously for more than 1 year prior to his coming to the sending state and has not resided within the sending state more than 6 continuous months immediately preceding the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted.

II. That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation of and supervision over probationers or parolees of any sending state and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards that prevail for its own probationers and parolees.

III. That duly accredited officers of a sending state may at all times enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any person on probation or parole. For that purpose no formalities will be required other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the person to be retaken. All legal requirements to obtain extradition of fugitives from justice are expressly waived on the part of the states party hereto, as to such persons. The decision of the sending state to retake a person on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state; provided, however, that if at the time when a state seeks to retake a probationer or parolee there should be pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge, or he should be suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense, he shall not be retaken without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or from imprisonment for such offense.

IV. That the duly accredited officers of the sending state will be permitted to transport prisoners being retaken through any and all states parties to this compact, without interference.

V. That the governor of each state may designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other contracting states, if and when appointed, shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to more effectively carry out the terms of this compact.

VI. That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state.

VII. That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. The duties and obligations hereunder of a renouncing state shall continue as to parolees or probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged by the sending state. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending 6 months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto.

This section may be cited as the "Uniform Act for Out-of-State Parolee Supervision."

Uniform Interstate Compact on Juveniles.

Sec. 21. Authorization. The Governor of this State is authorized and directed to execute a Compact on behalf of the State with any of the States of the United States legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows.

Sec. 22. Interstate Compact on Juveniles. The contracting states solemnly agree:

Article 1. Findings and purposes. That juveniles who are not under proper supervision and control, or who have absconded, escaped or run away, are likely to endanger their own health, morals and welfare, and the health, morals and welfare of others. The cooperation of the states party to this compact is therefore necessary to provide for the welfare and protection of juveniles and of the public with respect to

I. Cooperative supervision of delinquent juveniles on probation or parole;

II. The return, from one state to another, of delinquent juveniles who have escaped or absconded;

III. The return, from one state to another, of non-delinquent juveniles who have run away from home; and

IV. Additional measures for the protection of juveniles and of the public, which any two or more of the party states may find desirable to undertake cooperatively. In carrying out the provisions of this Compact the party states shall be guided by the non-criminal, reformatory and protective policies which guide their laws concerning delinquent, neglected or dependent juveniles generally. It shall be the policy of the states party to this Compact to cooperate and observe their respective responsibilities for the prompt return and acceptance of juveniles and delinquent juveniles who become subject to the provisions of this Compact. The provisions of this Compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed to accomplish the foregoing purposes.

Article 2. Existing rights and remedies. That all remedies and procedures provided by this Compact shall be in addition to and not in substitution for other rights, remedies and procedures, and shall not be in derogation of parental rights and responsibilities.

Article 3. Definitions. That, for the purposes of this Compact: "Court" means any court having jurisdiction over delinquent, neglected or dependent children;

"Delinquent juvenile" means any juvenile who has been adjudged delinquent and who, at the time the provisions of this Compact are invoked, is still subject to the jurisdiction of the court that has made such adjudication or to the jurisdiction or supervision of an agency or institution pursuant to an order of such court;

"Probation or parole" means any kind of conditional release of juveniles authorized under the laws of the states party hereto;

"Residence" or any variant thereof means a place at which a home or regular place of abode is maintained; and

"State" means any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

Article 4. Return of runaways.

I. That the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody of a juvenile who has not been adjudged delinquent but who has run away without the consent of such parent, guardian, person or agency may petition the appropriate court in the demanding state for the issuance of a requisition for his return. The petition shall state the name and age of the juvenile, the name of the petitioner and the basis of entitlement to the juvenile's custody, the circumstances of his running away, his location if known at the time application is made, and such other facts as may tend to show that the juvenile who has run away is endangering his own welfare or the welfare of others and is not an emancipated minor. The petition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the document or documents on which the petitioner's entitlement to the juvenile's custody is based, such as birth certificates, letters of guardianship or custody decrees. Such further affidavits and others documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such petition. The judge of the court to which this application is made may hold a hearing thereon to determine whether for the purposes of this Compact the petitioner is entitled to the legal custody of the juvenile, whether or not it appears that the juvenile has in fact run away without consent, whether or not he is an emancipated minor, and whether or not it is in the best interest of the juvenile to compel his return to the state. If the judge determines, either with or without a hearing, that the juvenile should be returned, he shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such juvenile. Such requisition shall set forth the name and age of the juvenile, the determination of the court that the juvenile has run away without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to his legal custody, and that it is in the best interest and for the protection of such juvenile that he be returned. In the event that a proceeding for the adjudication of the juvenile as a delinquent, neglected or dependent juvenile is pending in the court at the time when such juvenile runs away, the court may issue a requisition for the return of such juvenile upon its own motion, regardless of the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody, reciting therein the nature and circumstances of the pending proceeding. The requisition shall in every case be executed in duplicate and shall be signed by the judge. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of such court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a juvenile who has run away, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him, unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return, and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such juvenile over to the officer whom the court demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a juvenile who has run away from another state party to this Compact without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to his legal custody, such juvenile may be taken into custody without a requisition and brought forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such juvenile and who shall determine after a hearing whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person, subject to the order of the court, for his own protection and welfare, for such a time not exceeding 90 days as will enable his return to another state party to this Compact pursuant to a requisition for his return from a court of that state. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a juvenile who has run away, there is pending in the state wherein he is found any criminal charge, or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this Compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such juvenile through any and all states party to this Compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he ran away, the juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

II. That the state to which a juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

III. That "juvenile" as used in this Article means any person who is a minor under the law of the state of residence of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of such minor.

Article 5. Return of escapees and absconders.

I. That the appropriate person or authority from whose probation or parole supervision a delinquent juvenile has absconded or from whose institutional custody he has escaped shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the delinquent juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such delinquent juvenile. Such requisition shall state the name and age of the delinquent juvenile, the particulars of his adjudication as a delinquent juvenile, the circumstances of the breach of the terms of his probation or parole or of his escape from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, and the location of such delinquent juvenile, if known, at the time the requisition is made. The requisition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the judgment, formal adjudication, or order of commitment which subjects such delinquent juvenile to probation or parole or to the legal custody of the institution or agency concerned. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such requisition. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of the appropriate court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a delinquent juvenile who has absconded or escaped, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing him to take into custody and detain such delinquent juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No delinquent juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him, unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of an appropriate court in the state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his return and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for him. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, he shall deliver such delinquent juvenile over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this Compact, such person may be taken into custody in any other state party to this Compact without a requisition. But in such event, he must be taken forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court, who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such person and who shall determine, after a hearing, whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person subject to the order of the court for such a time, not exceeding 90 days, as will enable his detention under a detention order issued on a requisition pursuant to this Article. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a delinquent juvenile who has either absconded while on probation or parole or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision, there is pending in the state wherein he is detained any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this Compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the delinquent juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such delinquent juvenile through any and all states party to this Compact, without interference. Upon his return to the state from which he escaped or absconded, the delinquent juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

II. That the state to which a delinquent juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

Article 6. Voluntary return procedure. That any delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with his legal custody or supervision in any state party to this Compact, and any juvenile who has run away from any state party to this Compact, who is taken into custody without a requisition in another state party to this Compact under the provisions of subsection I of Article 4 or of subsection I of Article 5, may consent to his immediate return to the state from which he absconded, escaped or run away. Such consent shall be given by the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem if any, by executing or subscribing a writing, in the presence of a judge of the appropriate court, which states that the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and his counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, consent to his return to the demanding state. Before such consent shall be executed or subscribed, however, the judge, in the presence of counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, shall inform the juvenile or delinquent juvenile of his rights under this Compact. When the consent has been duly executed, it shall be forwarded to and filed with the compact administrator of the state in which the court is located and the judge shall direct the officer having the juvenile or delinquent juvenile in custody to deliver him to the duly accredited officer or officers of the state demanding his return, and shall cause to be delivered to such officer or officers a copy of the consent. The court may, however, upon the request of the state to which the juvenile or delinquent juvenile is being returned, order him to return unaccompanied to such state and shall provide him with a copy of such court order; in such event a copy of the consent shall be forwarded to the compact administrator of the state to which said juvenile or delinquent juvenile is ordered to return.

Article 7. Cooperative Supervision of Probationers and Parolees.

I. That the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this Compact, herein called "sending state," may permit any delinquent juvenile within such state, placed on probation or parole, to reside in any other state party to this Compact, herein called "receiving state," while on probation or parole, and the receiving state shall accept such delinquent juvenile, if the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of such delinquent juvenile is residing or undertakes to reside within the receiving state. Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be given to the receiving state to make such investigations as it deems necessary. The authorities of the sending state shall send to the authorities of the receiving state copies of pertinent court orders, social case studies and all other available information which may be of value to and assist the receiving state in supervising a probationer or parolee under this Compact. A receiving state, in its discretion, may agree to accept supervision of a probationer or parolee in cases where the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of the delinquent juvenile is not a resident of the receiving state, and if so accepted the sending state may transfer supervision accordingly.

II. That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation and of supervision over any such delinquent juvenile and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards of visitation and supervision that prevail for its own delinquent juveniles released on probation or parole.

III. That, after consultation between the appropriate authorities of the sending state and of the receiving state as to the desirability and necessity of returning such a delinquent juvenile, the duly accredited officers of a sending state may enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any such delinquent juvenile on probation or parole. For that purpose, no formalities will be required, other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the delinquent juvenile to be retaken and returned. The decision of the sending state to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if, at the time the sending state seeks to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole, there is pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge or any proceeding to have him adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for any act committed in such state, or if he is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, he shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport delinquent juveniles being so returned through any and all states party to this Compact, without interference.

IV. That the sending state shall be responsible under this Article for paying the costs of transporting any delinquent juvenile to the receiving state or of returning any delinquent juvenile to the sending state.

I. That the provisions of subsection II of Article 4, subsection II of Article 5 and subsection IV of Article 7 of this Compact shall not be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

II. That nothing in this Compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to subsection II of Article 4, subsection II of Article 5 or subsection IV of Article 7 of this Compact.

Article 9. Detention practices. That, to every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this Compact that no juvenile or delinquent juvenile shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail or lockup nor be detained or transported in association with criminal, vicious or dissolute persons.

Article 10. Supplementary agreements. That the duly constituted administrative authorities of a state party to this Compact may enter into supplementary agreements with any other state or states party hereto for the cooperative care, treatment and rehabilitation of delinquent juveniles whenever they shall find that such agreements will improve the facilities or programs available for such care, treatment and rehabilitation. Such care, treatment and rehabilitation may be provided in an institution located within any state entering into such supplementary agreement. Such supplementary agreements shall

I. Provide the rates to be paid for the care, treatment and custody of such delinquent juveniles, taking into consideration the character of facilities, services and subsistence furnished;

II. Provide that the delinquent juvenile shall be given a court hearing prior to his being sent to another state for care, treatment and custody;

III. Provide that the state receiving such a delinquent juvenile in one of its institutions shall act solely as agent for the state sending such delinquent juvenile;

V. Provide for reasonable inspection of such institutions by the sending state;

VI. Provide that the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of said delinquent juvenile shall be secured prior to his being sent to another state; and

VII. Make provision for such other matters and details as shall be necessary to protect the rights and equities of such delinquent juveniles and of the cooperating states.

Article 11. Acceptance of Federal and other aid. That any state party to this Compact may accept any and all donations, gifts and grants of money, equipment and services from the federal or any local government, or any agency thereof and from any person, firm or corporation, for any of the purposes and functions of this Compact, and may receive and utilize the same subject to the terms, conditions and regulations governing such donations, gifts and grants.

Article 12. Compact administrators. That the governor of each state party to this Compact shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this Compact.

Article 13. Execution of Compact. That this Compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state.

Article 14. Renunciation. That this Compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. Renunciation of this Compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending 6 months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the Compact to the other states party hereto. The duties and obligations of a renouncing state under Article 7 hereof shall continue as to parolees and probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged. Supplementary agreements entered into under Article 10 hereof shall be subject to renunciation as provided by such supplementary agreements, and shall not be subject to the 6 months' renunciation notice of the present Article.

Article 15. Severability. That the provisions of this Compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this Compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstances is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this Compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this Compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the Compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.'
