Private and Special Laws

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-eighth Legislature

lectmen may call not more than one more such special election to be held within the time prescribed above.

The result of such elections shall be declared by the selectmen of the town of Cape Elizabeth and due certificates thereof filed by the town clerk with the Secretary of State.

Effective August 28, 1957

Chapter 136

AN ACT Authorizing Copying of Volume Six, Oxford County, Western District, Registry of Deeds.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. True copy authorized of certain Oxford county records of deeds. The register of deeds for the county of Oxford, Western District, is hereby authorized and empowered to make a true copy of the contents of Volume 6 of the Oxford county, Western District, records of deeds and to certify that the same are true copies of said record.

Sec. 2. Same legal effect as original volumes. When said copies are so made and certified, the records contained therein and the certified copies made therefrom shall be received in all courts of law with the same legal effect as those contained in the original volume.

Sec. 3. Compensation for services. The compensation for such services shall be fixed by the county commissioners of said county, and upon an order approved by them shall be paid by the county treasurer.

Effective August 28, 1957

Chapter 137

AN ACT Authorizing Construction of a Breakwater Across Mill Cove, Hancock County.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, considerable time is needed to construct the proposed breakwater across the entrance of Mill Cove, Hancock County; and

Whereas, winter conditions are unfavorable for building such a structure; and

Whereas, a partly constructed breakwater might be damaged and deteriorated by tide and ice during the winter months; and

Whereas, time is the essence in commencing the construction of said breakwater so that the construction of the same may be completed before winter; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Breakwater across entrance of Mill Cove, Crotch Island, Stonington Harbor, authorized. John L. Goss Corporation and Deer Isle Granite Corporation, both of Stonington, in the county of Hancock and State of Maine, their successors and assigns, are hereby authorized and empowered to extend and maintain the existing breakwater on Crotch Island in Stonington Harbor across the easterly end of Mill Cove, so called. Said extension shall begin on the southern end of the present breakwater which extends into the tidewaters from the property owned by Deer Isle Granite Corporation and run south for a distance of approximately 240 feet to the shore line of the John L. Goss Corporation property. It shall be constructed of grout and rubble granite and be of sufficient width for the safety and convenience of travel with necessary and convenient equipment in granite quarrying undertaking.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Effective May 3, 1957

Chapter 138

AN ACT Relating to the Winthrop Sewer System.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, the proper collection and disposal of sewage and wastes are vital to the health and well-being of the inhabitants of a community; and

Whereas, adequate sewerage facilities are at all times necessary for properly collecting and disposing of the same; and

Whereas, for such purposes, it is desirable that the Winthrop Sewer System be enabled to construct such sewerage facilities during the forthcoming summer months; and

Whereas, to accomplish this it is necessary that the following legislation be voted upon as soon as possible; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1923, c. 98, § 13, amended. The first sentence of section 13 of chapter 98 of the private and special laws of 1923, as repealed and replaced by section 5 of chapter 182 of the private and special laws of 1955, is hereby amended to read as follows:

'For accomplishing the purposes of this act, said water district, through its trustees, is authorized to borrow money temporarily and to issue therefor the interest-bearing negotiable notes of the district, and for the purpose of paying or refunding the indebtedness so created, of paying any necessary expenses or
