PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-ninth Legislature

1959

CHAP. 129

PUBLIC LAWS, 1959

by dogs are entitled, subject only to the conditions and limitations applicable to all persons not accompanied by dogs, and no blind person shall be required to pay any charge or fare on account of the transportation on any public conveyance of himself and such dog so accompanying him, in addition to the charge or fare lawfully chargeable for his own transportation. The management of any such public conveyances, public amusements and places of public accommodations may require a blind owner of a guide dog to show written evidence that his dog has been educated, trained and intended, in fact, to perform such guide service for him; and the foregoing management may also require the owner to muzzle his guide dog while on their respective premises. Whoever deprives any blind person of any right conferred by this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $300.'

Effective September 12, 1959

Chapter 128

AN ACT Relating to Registration of Certain Vehicles Owned by Maine Residents.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 22, § 13, amended. Section 13 of chapter 22 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, is further amended by adding at the end, a new paragraph, as follows:

'Maine residents, who register vehicles in another state, may operate such vehicles in Maine in the event of a breakdown without procuring Maine registrations, provided such breakdowns are reported within 48 hours to the Chief of the State Police and provided such vehicles are registered in a state which has other reciprocal registration agreements with the State of Maine.'

Effective September 12, 1959

Chapter 129

AN ACT Relating to Qualifications of Directors of Corporations.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 53, § 32, amended. The 4th sentence of section 32 of chapter 53 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by section 35 of chapter 397 of the public laws of 1957, is repealed and the following sentence enacted in place thereof:

'Directors need not be stockholders if the charter or by-laws of the corporation so provide.'
