in this section. ~~Farm trucks so registered shall be operated on the public highways only within a radius of 65 miles from the main entrance of the farm where such vehicle is customarily kept. The Secretary of State shall issue a registration plate or plates so designed that a farm motor truck registered under this section may be distinguished from commercial vehicles otherwise registered under the provisions of this section. Farm trucks so registered shall have the name of the town in which the excise tax has been paid printed in letters not less than 4 inches in height on the door on the left side of the cab of the truck. Trucks which are used on a substantially daily delivery schedule on established routes are not included as "farm trucks." Any person fraudulently obtaining a farm truck license shall be fined upon conviction $50. Any person using a truck with a license plate marked for any purposes other than those authorized by this section shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500.~~

Chapter 163

AN ACT Concerning Exit Facilities in Buildings and Other Structures.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 97, § 48-A, additional. Chapter 97 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding a new section 48-A, to read as follows:

'Sec. 48-A. Exits in buildings and other structures. The Insurance Commissioner shall adopt and may amend, after notice and public hearing, reasonable regulations governing exits in all buildings or other structures within his jurisdiction.

I. Building exits code followed. The regulations shall conform as nearly as practicable with the Building Exits Code as adopted and amended by the National Fire Protection Association.

II. Effective date. The regulations become effective when a certified copy of them have been approved in writing by the Governor and Council and filed with the Secretary of State.

III. Rights declared. Any person aggrieved by a regulation or by an act of the commissioner in enforcing it may have his rights declared by bringing a petition for declaratory judgment under chapter 107, sections 38 to 50, naming the commissioner as defendant.

IV. Violation. Any person who violates a regulation issued by the commissioner under this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100 or by imprisonment for not more than 90 days, or by both.'
