Chapter 325

AN ACT Relating to Augmenting of Stored Water.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 180, § § 39-A - 39-C, additional. Chapter 180 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding 3 new sections, to be numbered 39-A, 39-B and 39-C, to read as follows:

'Sec. 39-A. Right of mill owners to augment stored water by pumping or otherwise; right to flow land conferred; assessment of damages. Any person, firm or corporation which may be entitled to the rights and benefits provided for in this chapter is authorized and empowered to build, maintain and operate dams and other necessary works and structures, including side dams, embankments, ditches and drains, on lands owned or leased by them for the purpose of creating and maintaining water storage reservoirs or basins; to raise the level of the waters in such storage reservoirs or basins by augmenting the supply of stored water from sources other than the natural drainage area by means of pumping or otherwise; to retain and discharge said stored water; to build, maintain and operate pipes, conduits, penstocks, tunnels and canals for the purpose of augmenting and discharging said stored water for use by such persons, firms or corporations for working their water mill or mills. Such persons, firms or corporations are also authorized and empowered to flow such lands as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, and damages caused by the flowing of such lands by means of said dams, other works and structures shall be ascertained and determined in the manner as prescribed in this chapter.

Sec. 39-B. Authorized to acquire lands and rights-of-way for pipes, conduits, penstocks, tunnels and canals by eminent domain; assessment of damages. Any person, firm or corporation authorized and empowered to build, maintain and operate pipes, conduits, penstocks, tunnels and canals under section 39-A is further authorized and empowered to exercise the right of eminent domain by taking and holding as for public uses in the manner and subject to the limitations prescribed in chapter 52, section 12, such lands and rights-of-way as such person, firm or corporation may require for such purposes when the water which will be stored, retained and discharged through the use of such pipes, conduits, penstocks, tunnels and canals will be devoted to public uses. All proceedings relating to damages caused by the building, maintaining and operating of said pipes, conduits, penstocks, tunnels and canals shall be ascertained and determined in the same manner as prescribed in said chapter 52, sections 13 to 22.

Sec. 39-C. Authorization required. Any person, firm or corporation authorized and empowered to augment stored water by pumping or otherwise under section 39-A and acquire by eminent domain for public uses, lands and rights-of-way for pipes, conduits, penstocks, tunnels and canals under section 39-B, is authorized and empowered to exercise the rights and benefits under this chapter, as amended, but only when such person, firm or corporation shall have received the necessary authority by legislative act.'

Sec. 2. Saving clause. If any clause, sentence or provision of the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 180, sections 39-A, 39-B and 39-C shall, for any reason, be adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such adjudication shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of said sections or the other provisions of said Revised Statutes, chapter 180, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence or provisions of said sections 39-A, 39-B and 39-C directly involved in the controversy in which such adjudication shall have taken place.

Sec. 3. Authorizing Central Maine Power Company to build, maintain and operate a pump storage development in Pleasant Ridge Plantation, County of Somerset and State of Maine. In accordance with the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 180, section 39-C, Central Maine Power Company, a public utility corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Maine, is authorized and empowered under said Revised Statutes, chapter 180, sections 39-A and 39-B, and the rights and benefits set forth therein, to build, maintain and operate a pump storage development, so called, at Clear and Rowe Ponds, in the Plantation of Pleasant Ridge, County of Somerset and State of Maine, for the purpose of generating electric energy for public uses by augmenting the supply of water stored and retained from the natural drainage area of said ponds by pumping water from Wyman Lake, so called, into the reservoir created at said ponds by means of a penstock, conduit, tunnel or canal, all in the manner and subject to the limitations prescribed in said Revised Statutes, chapter 180, sections 39-A and 39-B.

Effective September 12, 1959
