Chapter 357

AN ACT Revising Laws Relating to Slaughterhouses.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 32, § 248, amended. Section 248 of chapter 32 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by section 1 of chapter 107 of the public laws of 1955, is further amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 248. Licenses for slaughterhouses and meat processing plants; carcasses stamped. No person, firm, partnership, corporation, association or society shall operate a slaughterhouse or meat processing plant within the State of Maine unless such person, firm, partnership, corporation, association or society be licensed by the commissioner of Agriculture. A license shall not be required of any farmer or other person who raises and slaughters his own domestic animals on his farm or premises for consumption ~~or sale~~ as human food ~~this being incidental to his general livelihood by himself or his family~~; nor of any retail sales establishment; nor the home kitchen operated only by the owner and his immediate family; ~~nor of the farmer or other person who raises and slaughters his own poultry for consumption or sale~~; nor a custom slaughterhouse, nor a custom meat processing plant. An application for a license, or renewal of license, shall be made each year upon a form prescribed by the commissioner. Such license shall commence upon the first day of August. With the application, there shall be paid to the commissioner a license fee of $5. Upon receipt of the application for a license, or renewal of same, the commissioner shall issue a license after being satisfied that the applicant has complied with section 251 and the regulations promulgated thereunder. Each such license shall cover a group of buildings or parts thereof, in one location, constituting a slaughterhouse, meat processing plant, or both; operated by the licensee. Said license shall run for one year from the first day of August in each year, or unless sooner revoked as provided in section 249. ~~The owner of a custom slaughterhouse or custom meat processing plant shall register with the commissioner annually on August 1st on forms supplied by the commissioner signifying in-~~
