AN ACT Permitting Town of Fort Kent to Raise Money for Boarding Home for Aged.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Fort Kent to raise money for boarding home for aged. The Town of Fort Kent, Aroostook County, may raise or appropriate money to provide for or support a boarding home in the Town of Fort Kent for the housing, board and care of aged human beings, regardless of race, creed, color or religion, provided that said boarding home shall be organized under the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 54. The Town of Fort Kent shall have a lien on such boarding home equal to the amount of money appropriated and turned over in the aggregate by the Town of Fort Kent to the said boarding home, which lien may be enforced in the same manner and with the same effect as the lien on real estate set forth in the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 91-A, section 89, as enacted by the public laws of 1955, chapter 399, section 1, whenever the said boarding home ceases to be a boarding home organized under said Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 54.

Effective September 12, 1959
