AN ACT Permitting Town of Fort Kent to Raise Money for Boarding Home for Aged.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Fort Kent to raise money for boarding home for aged. The Town of Fort Kent, Aroostook County, may raise or appropriate money to provide for or support a boarding home in the Town of Fort Kent for the housing, board and care of aged human beings, regardless of race, creed, color or religion, provided that said boarding home shall be organized under the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 54. The Town of Fort Kent shall have a lien on such boarding home equal to the amount of money appropriated and turned over in the aggregate by the Town of Fort Kent to the said boarding home, which lien may be enforced in the same manner and with the same effect as the lien on real estate set forth in the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 91-A, section 89, as enacted by the public laws of 1955, chapter 399, section 1, whenever the said boarding home ceases to be a boarding home organized under said Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 54.

Effective September 12, 1959

AN ACT to Incorporate the R. and T. Cement Railroad Company.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Incorporation. Alfred S. Black, C. B. Patterson and O. D. Emerson, Jr., their associates and successors, may form a corporation under the name of R. and T. Cement Railroad Company for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating a railroad, conveyor system and system of pipe lines for public use in the conveyance of property within the Counties of Knox and Waldo, but not for the conveyance of persons. For such purpose they may prepare and file articles of association in which shall be stated the amount of capital stock, which shall not be less than $25,000; the number of shares of which such stock shall consist; and the names and places of residence of at least 5 persons who shall act as directors of the proposed company and manage its affairs until others are chosen in their places. Each such person shall sign his name, indicate his residence and the number of shares which he agrees to take in the said corporation.

Sec. 2. Approval of Public Utilities Commission. The articles of association of the corporation, the location of its roads and routes and extensions thereof, the taking by it of real estate for its roads and routes and the holding of the same as for public purposes shall be subject to the approval of the Public Utilities Commission in the same manner and to the same extent as is now, or may be hereafter, required of railroad corporations organized under the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 45.

Sec. 3. Powers. The corporation shall have all the powers granted to railroad corporations organized under the provisions of the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 45, and all provisions of said chapter, not inconsistent with section 1 hereof, shall apply to and govern the affairs of this corporation.

Sec. 4. Extension of routes. The roads and routes authorized under this act shall not extend beyond a southern terminal in the Town of Thomaston, in the County of Knox, and a northern terminal in the Town of Lincolnville, in the County of Waldo.

Sec. 5. Limitation. This act shall become null and void in 2 years from the day when the same takes effect, unless the corporation shall have organized and commenced actual business hereunder.

Effective September 12, 1959
