Private and Special Laws

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the Ninety-ninth Legislature

1959

The corporation shall have the same right to sell, convert, exchange, transfer or otherwise change or dispose of the assets of the common trust or trusts as it now has with regard to the property constituting each separate fund. Each separate fund merged shall have at all times a proportionate undivided interest in the common fund. The corporation shall clearly designate upon its records each fund merged and the extent of that interest. The income of the common fund, after deduction of the expenses of administering it, shall be paid to or for the institutions or persons entitled to receive the same in proportion to the interest of each separate fund in the common fund.'

Effective September 12, 1959

Chapter 120

AN ACT Relating to Powers of York Beach Village Corporation.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1901, c. 455, § 3, repealed and replaced. Section 3 of chapter 455 of the private and special laws of 1901, as amended by chapter 129 of the private and special laws of 1917, is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 3. Rights, powers and privileges. The corporation, within its territorial limits, shall have and is hereby granted all the rights, powers and privileges which towns have under the provisions of the Revised Statutes and the public laws of the State of Maine; all the powers, duties and privileges granted to selectmen, clerks, treasurer, constables and other municipal officers of towns by the Revised Statutes and public laws of the State of Maine are hereby specifically granted to and vested in the assessors, clerk, treasurer, constable and other municipal officers of the corporation; all the powers conferred and duties, penalties and obligations imposed by the Revised Statutes and the public laws of the State of Maine upon towns and upon persons for the benefit and protection of towns and persons and of their drains, sewers and property shall be possessed by and imposed upon the corporation, the persons and the property therein, for the benefit and protection of the corporation, the persons and the property, drains and sewers therein; and all the rights, powers and privileges which towns have or which the municipal officers of towns have under the provisions of the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 90-A, sections 61 to 63, as enacted by the public laws of 1957, chapter 405, section 1, relating to municipal development; and all acts amendatory thereof or additional thereto are hereby specifically granted to and vested in the corporation and its municipal officers.'

Effective September 12, 1959
