Chapter 341

AN ACT Including Piers and Terminals in Maine Industrial Building Authority Act.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 38-B, § 5, sub-§ III, repealed and replaced. Subsection III of section 5 of chapter 38-B of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 421 of the public laws of 1957, is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

‘III. Industrial project. “Industrial project” shall mean:

A. Any building or other real estate improvement and, if a part thereof, the land upon which they may be located, and all real properties deemed necessary to their use by any industry for the manufacturing, processing or assembling of raw materials or manufactured products;

B. Any ocean pier or terminal occupied by any industry engaged in the manufacturing, processing or assembling of materials or products and used for the storage or transshipment of such materials or products before or after being so manufactured, processed or assembled by such industry. Said pier or terminal shall not be used by any person, corporation, association or other entity in competition with the ferry service supplied under the resolves of 1953, chapter 105.’

Effective September 16, 1961

Chapter 342

AN ACT Permitting Attorney General to Bring Action for Money Due Indian Tribes.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 25, § 329, repealed and replaced. Section 329 of chapter 25 of the Revised Statutes is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

‘Sec. 329. Attorney General may bring action in name of tribe. The Attorney General upon his own initiative, or at the request of the governing body of any of the Indian tribes in this State, may in the name of any such tribe and in his said capacity, maintain actions for money due any such tribe and for injuries done to tribal lands. All sums or damages so recovered shall be distributed by the commissioner to the Indians of the tribe concerned according to their usages, or be invested in useful articles. This section shall apply only to tribal and unassigned lands not privately owned and shall apply only to damages and injuries arising out of acts done after the effective date of this act.’

Effective September 16, 1961
