Chapter 410

AN ACT Granting Courts Power to Issue Injunctions to Enforce Milk Commission Law.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless passed as emergencies; and

Whereas, the production and distribution of milk is an industry within the State affected with a public interest; and

Whereas, the health of the public requires a continuous abundant supply of wholesome pure milk; and

Whereas, certain unfair practices have been carried on and may be carried on which are detrimental to the production, sale and distribution of wholesome milk, thereby leading to a lowering of the health standards and impairing an adequate supply of wholesome milk to the public; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 33, § 1, amended. The 3rd paragraph from the end of section 1 of chapter 33 of the Revised Statutes, which relates to the definition of "store", as amended by section 5 of chapter 384 of the public laws of 1957, is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:
