quent proceedings as of the date the district originally entered and took possession of the premises involved.

VI. Cases pending when amendment becomes law. This amendment applies to any case as to all subsequent procedure which may be pending before the county commissioners or the Superior Court on the date the amendment becomes law.

A. The 90-day limit for final decision of the county commissioners for any such pending case will be computed from the date the pending appeal was filed with them. If the time between that date and the effective date of this amendment is more than 90 days, then the appeal is automatically dismissed as provided in subsection III, paragraph A, as of the effective date of this amendment. In such event, the party claiming damages has 30 days from the effective date of this amendment to appeal to Superior Court.'
