PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the One Hundred and First Legislature

1963

Chapter 14

AN ACT Relating to Distribution of Shrub Material by Forest Commissioner.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 36, § 65, amended. The last sentence of section 65 of chapter 36 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by chapter 172 of the public laws of 1957, is further amended to read as follows:

'He may ~~also~~ establish within the State one or more forest nurseries, the maintenance of which shall be paid from the appropriation for that purpose, the object of which is declared to be to furnish forest tree seedlings and transplants for use in planting the waste and cut over lands of the State and may produce and distribute at cost shrub material for wildlife development in cooperation with other state agencies.'

Effective September 21, 1963

Chapter 15

AN ACT Relating to Use of Service Facilities by Banks.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 59, § 1-P, amended. The first sentence of section 1-P of chapter 59 of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 385 of the public laws of 1961, is amended to read as follows:

'Any financial institution may purchase the capital stock or obligations or otherwise invest or participate in or utilize the service of any organization ~~operated primarily for the purpose of~~ performing necessary clearing, bookkeeping, statistical and related services for the institution or other financial institutions, which services would otherwise necessarily be provided on an individual institutional basis.'

Effective September 21, 1963

Chapter 16

AN ACT Relating to Publishing of Regulations Closing Contaminated Shores, Waters or Flats.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, it is vitally necessary for the Commissioner of Sea and Shore Fisheries to close contaminated and polluted areas as soon as he receives notification from the Commissioner of Agriculture; and

Whereas, it is impossible to close such areas immediately under the present law; and

Whereas, time is of the essence to protect the health of the people of Maine; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 37-A, § 16, sub-§ II, ¶ C, amended. Paragraph C of subsection II of section 16 of chapter 37-A of the Revised Statutes, as enacted by section 1 of chapter 331 of the public laws of 1959 and as amended by section 1 of chapter 238 of the public laws of 1961, is further amended to read as follows:

~~'C. After the The commissioner of Sea and Shore Fisheries has complied with paragraph B, he shall cause the regulation to be published once in a newspaper or combination of newspapers published having general circulation in the county or counties where the shores, waters or flats to be closed are located. or~~

~~1. If the shores, waters or flats to be closed are located in more than one county, the regulation may be published once in a newspaper or combination of newspapers having general circulation in each county where the shores, waters or flats are situated.'~~

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Effective February 26, 1963

Chapter 17

AN ACT Relating to Appropriation of State Board of Arbitration and Conciliation.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 30, § 15, amended. The first paragraph of section 15 of chapter 30 of the Revised Statutes, as repealed and replaced by section 1 of chapter 462 of the public laws of 1955, is amended by adding a new sentence at the end, to read as follows:
