PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE

As Passed by the One Hundred and First Legislature

1963

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 89, § 16-C, additional. Chapter 89 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding a new section 16-C, to read as follows:

'Sec. 16-C. Buildings for education of retarded children. The county commissioners may expend county funds for construction or acquisition of buildings for educational programs for retarded children operated with approval of the State Department of Education and receiving state subsidies therefor. If the buildings for which county funds have been expended under this section shall not be used for the operation of such programs, the buildings shall revert to the county. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to authorize counties to operate such programs. This section shall apply to Oxford County only.'

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved.

Effective April 2, 1963

Chapter 155

AN ACT Relating to Superintendent of Schools in School Districts Employing Less Than Fifteen Teachers.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 41, § 77, sub-§ V, additional. Section 77 of chapter 41 of the Revised Statutes, as repealed and replaced by section 37 of chapter 364 of the public laws of 1957, is amended by adding a new subsection V, as follows:

'V. Less than 15 teachers. When a school administrative district employs less than 15 teachers and owing to geographical location or other reasons it is not practicable to combine with other administrative units to form a supervisory unit as authorized in this section, the directors, on approval of the commissioner and State Board of Education, may employ a qualified person to serve as superintendent of schools and as supervising principal.'

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 41, § 80, amended. Section 80 of chapter 41 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, is further amended by adding after the 4th sentence, a new sentence, as follows:

'Whenever a superintendent of schools serves as a supervising principal as authorized in section 77, subsection V, the sum paid to such superintendents of schools shall not exceed $675 nor be less than $575.'

Effective September 21, 1963
