PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE
AS PASSED BY THE
One Hundred and First Legislature
AT THE
SPECIAL SESSIONS
January 6-17, 1964
September 28-30, 1964

Sec. 10. Incidental rights and privileges. All incidental rights, powers and privileges necessary to the accomplishment of the main object herein set forth are granted to the district hereby created.

Sec. 11. Annual report. The trustees shall make and publish an annual report, including a report of the treasurer, and such report may be included in, and published as part of, the annual town report. Also, a complete report of the doings of the district shall be rendered at the annual town meeting of the Town of Damariscotta by the board of trustees of said district, including a financial report.

Sec. 12. Saving clause. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 13. Existing statutes not affected; rights conferred subject to provisions of law. Nothing herein contained is intended to repeal, or shall be construed as repealing, the whole or any part of any existing statutes and the rights and duties herein mentioned shall be exercised and performed in accordance with all the applicable provisions of the Revised Statutes of 1954, chapter 44, and all acts amendatory or additional thereto.

Emergency clause; referendum; effective date. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this act shall take effect when approved, only for the purpose of permitting its submission to the legal voters of the district, being the Town of Damariscotta, at the next annual town meeting of the Town of Damariscotta.

The town clerk of said Town of Damariscotta shall prepare the required ballots on which he shall reduce the subject matter of this act to the following question: "Shall the 'Act Creating the Damariscotta Sewage District', passed by the first special session of the 101st Legislature, be accepted?" The voters shall indicate by a cross or check mark placed against the words "Yes" or "No" their opinion of the same.

This act shall take complete effect for all purposes immediately upon its acceptance by a majority of the legal voters voting thereon at such election, provided that the total number of votes cast for and against the acceptance of this act equals or exceeds 20% of the total vote for all candidates for Governor cast in said town at the next preceding gubernatorial election.

The result of such election shall be declared by the selectmen of the Town of Damariscotta and due certificate thereof shall be filed by the town clerk with the Secretary of State.

Effective January 17, 1964

Chapter 233

AN ACT to Apportion One Hundred and Fifty-one Representatives Among the Several Counties, Cities, Towns, Plantations and Classes in the State of Maine.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, acts and resolves passed by the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the eighty-eighth amendment to the Constitution affecting the election, powers and apportionment of the House of Representatives, proposed to the people by Chapter 75 of the Resolves of the One Hundred and First Legislature, was favorably voted upon by the people at the Special Election held November 5, 1963 and proclaimed a part of the Constitution by the Governor November 20, 1963; and

Whereas, said amendment requires that the first apportionment, under its terms, shall be made by the One Hundred and First Legislature in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four; and

Whereas, the One Hundred and First Legislature has been convened in special session by the Governor for this purpose; and

Whereas, the primaries for the election of Representatives to the House of Representatives of the One Hundred and Second Legislature, under these new constitutional provisions, must be held in June of 1964; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:
