Chapter 122

AN ACT Authorizing Expenditure of Moneys by Oxford County for Economic and Recreational Development.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the following legislation is vitally necessary for the economic well-being of the people of Maine, and particularly the inhabitants of Oxford County; and

Whereas, plans and programs for the economic and recreational development of Oxford County should be initiated as soon as possible; and

Whereas, funds for such development should be made available for the year 1965; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., T. 10, c. 106, additional. Title 10 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding a new chapter 106 to read as follows:

'CHAPTER 106

OXFORD COUNTY

§ 911. Economic and recreational development

In order to attract new and additional industries to Oxford County and to encourage expansion of industries presently located in Oxford County and to develop and attract new recreational industries, the county commissioners are authorized to expend not exceeding the sum of $35,000 annually under the direction of the county commissioners, to be accounted for as other moneys of the county, for economic and recreational development within said County of Oxford. The Oxford County legislative delegation shall act as an advisory committee to the board of county commissioners of Oxford County in the administration of this section.

The commissioners of Oxford County are authorized to employ a development agent whose office shall be in the Oxford County courthouse at South Paris and whatever other administrative assistants who will be required to further the authorization provided by this section.'

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Effective March 26, 1965
