Chapter 200

AN ACT Relating to Improper Conditions for Industrial Safety.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., T. 26, § 45, amended. The first paragraph of section 45 of Title 26 of the Revised Statutes is repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'The work places, equipment, tools and working conditions provided by an employer shall be reasonably safe and not in such condition as to be hazardous to the employee engaged therein. If, upon inspection, the commissioner or any authorized agent of the department shall find that an existing condition is such as to be injurious to the health of the persons employed or residing therein by reason of inadequate heating, lighting, ventilation or sanitary arrangement, or that reasonable safeguards for preventing accidents or injuries to those employed are not provided, he shall notify, in writing, the employer, proprietor or agent operating such work place to make, within 30 days, the alterations or additions by him deemed necessary for the reasonable safety and protection of the employees. In case of extraordinary hazard, the commissioner or his agent may demand that the hazard be removed immediately.'

Sec. 2. R. S., T. 26, § 45-A, additional. Title 26 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding a new section 45-A, to read as follows:

§ 45-A. Application of sections 44 and 45

Sections 44 and 45 shall not apply to work on a farm or in or about a private residence, commercial fishing or logging, nor to employment in any Federal Government establishment nor to any activity subject to the control of the Interstate Commerce Commission, or the Maine Public Utilities Commission.'

Effective September 3, 1965
