Chapter 387

AN ACT to Extend Retirement Benefits to Wives of State Police Members Retired Under Noncontributory Statute.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., T. 25, § 1595, additional. Title 25 of the Revised Statutes is amended by adding a new section 1595, to read as follows:

§ 1595. Retirement benefits to wives extended

A surviving widow shall be paid $\frac{1}{2}$ of the amount that any member of the State Police, including the Chief of the State Police, is receiving either as a pension or a disability retirement allowance under this chapter, and said payments shall continue for the remainder of her lifetime or until she should remarry. Payments to the member shall cease as of the day of his death and shall begin to his widow on the following day.

This section shall apply to a surviving widow of any member of the State Police who at the time of his death had been eligible to or receiving a pension or a disability retirement allowance under this chapter.'

Sec. 2. Effective date. Payment of the widow's benefit shall not be retroactive but shall begin as of the effective date of this Act.

Effective September 3, 1965

Chapter 388

AN ACT Providing for Access Roads to Public Industrial Development Areas.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., T. 23, § 703, amended. The first sentence of section 703 of Title 23 of the Revised Statutes is amended to read as follows:

'Whenever the municipal officers of one or more municipalities, or the county commissioners if they are acting in the capacity of municipal officers, and the owner or owners of a ski area open to the general public or the owner or owners of a public industrial development area jointly deem it necessary that a road be constructed in the municipality or unorganized township represented by the municipal officers or county commissioners, they may jointly petition the commission for the construction of such a road.'
