1965

Chapter 123

AN ACT Relating to Unexpended Balance of Appropriation for Maine's Participation in the New York World's Fair.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment of the Legislature unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the 101st Legislature by chapter 77 of the private and special laws of 1963 appropriated funds for Maine's participation in the New England Pavilion at New York World's Fair, which funds will lapse June 30, 1965; and

Whereas, since Maine's participation will not expire until October 15, 1965, it is vitally necessary that the appropriated funds be carried forward; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. & S. L., 1963, c. 77, § 2, amended. Section 2 of chapter 77 of the private and special laws of 1963 is amended by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph to read as follows:

Sec. 2. P. & S. L., 1963, c. 77, § 3, amended. The last sentence of section 3 of chapter 77 of the private and special laws of 1963 is amended to read as follows:

'The funds appropriated under this section shall not lapse but shall remain a continuing carrying account until ~~June 30, 1965~~ November 15, 1965.'

Chapter 125

AN ACT Increasing the Indebtedness of the Veazie Sewer District.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, the existing sewer facilities in the Town of Veazie are inadequate for the needs of the inhabitants of said town, especially in the Chase Road area where the land conditions have been recently found to be inadequate to support the existing septic tanks presently in use; and

Whereas, this condition presently constitutes a menace to the health, welfare and safety of the inhabitants of said town; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1951, c. 114, § 8, amended. The first sentence of section 8 of chapter 114 of the private and special laws of 1951 is amended to read as follows:

'To procure funds for the purposes of this Act, and for such other expenses as may be necessary to carry out said purposes, the said district, by its trustees, is hereby authorized from time to time to borrow money and to issue its bonds and notes therefor, but shall not incur a total indebtedness exceeding the sum of ~~$50,000~~ $100,000 at any one time outstanding.'

Emergency clause, referendum; effective date. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved only for the purpose of permitting its submission to the legal voters of the district at a special election or elections called and held for the purpose.

The board of selectmen of the Town of Veazie shall call said election, to be held upon a date to be specified in writing by them. The registrar of voters shall make and provide a separate check list for such of the voters within said district as are then legal voters therein, and all warrants issued to said district shall be varied accordingly to show that only such voters therein are entitled to vote thereon. Such election shall be called, advertised and conducted according to the law relating to municipal elections; providing, however, that the registrar of voters shall not be required to prepare nor the town clerk to post a new check list of voters, and for this purpose said registrar of voters shall be in session the 2 secular days next preceding such election, the first day thereof to be devoted to the registration of voters and the last day to enable the registrar of voters to verify the corrections of said list and to complete and close up the records of said sessions. The town clerk shall reduce the subject matter of this Act to the following question: "Shall the Act to Increase the Indebtedness of the Veazie Sewer District be accepted?"
