Whereas, new building construction is vitally necessary; and

Whereas, the present borrowing capacity of said town will not allow it to borrow sufficient funds for the necessary construction and equipment; and

Whereas, it is very desirable that this matter be acted upon by the voters of said town at the earliest possible date; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1953, c. 109, § 4, amended. The first paragraph of section 4 of chapter 109 of the private and special laws of 1953, as amended by chapter 168 of the private and special laws of 1961, is further amended to read as follows:

'To procure funds for the purpose of this Act and for such other expenses as may be necessary to carry out said purposes, the said district, by its trustees, is hereby authorized from time to time to borrow such sums of money as shall be fixed at an annual meeting of the Town of Poland or a special meeting thereof called and held for that purpose, and to issue its bonds and notes therefor, but shall not incur a total indebtedness exceeding the sum of ~~$175,000~~ $285,000.'

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Approved January 27, 1966

Chapter 225

AN ACT to Extend the Maine Civil War Centennial Commission.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, the powers of the Maine Civil War Centennial Commission expired on December 31, 1965 by virtue of section 2 of chapter 48 of the private and special laws of 1959; and

Whereas, the purposes of the commission have not been fully reached in that projects planned have not been completed; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the brave deeds of Maine's Civil War heroes and veterans should have full and proper recognition during this the 100th observance of the Civil War; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Maine Civil War Centennial Commission extended. The terms of the members of the Maine Civil War Centennial Commission are extended until December 31, 1966 in order that it may complete the purposes for which it was originally formed.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Approved January 27, 1966

Chapter 226

AN ACT Amending the Mount Desert Island Regional School District.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, Acts of the Legislature do not become effective until 90 days after adjournment unless enacted as emergencies; and

Whereas, the board of trustees and the regional school committee of said Mount Desert Island Regional School District have been appointed; and

Whereas, the board of trustees is now prepared to select and acquire a site and employ an architect for the regional high school contemplated by the creation of said district; and

Whereas, the regional school committee has proceeded to develop a program of educational requirements for said regional school; and

Whereas, it is necessary to clarify certain duties and powers of said trustees and regional school committee in order for the project to proceed without delay; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the Legislature, these facts create an emergency within the meaning of the Constitution of Maine and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. & S. L., 1963, c. 176, § 3, amended. Section 3 of chapter 176 of the private and special laws of 1963 is amended by inserting after the first sentence of the 2nd paragraph a new sentence to read as follows:

'To procure funds to pay current expenses incurred in anticipation of the issuance of bonds for capital outlay purposes, the district, through its trustees, is authorized to borrow money for temporary purposes and to issue therefor the interest-bearing, negotiable notes of the district not exceeding in amount $100,000 outstanding at any one time, which said notes shall be payable not later than one year from the date thereof.'

Sec. 2. P. & S. L., 1963, c. 176, § 6, amended. Section 6 of chapter 176 of the private and special laws of 1963 is amended by adding at the end a new sentence to read as follows:
