Department of Health, Education and Welfare by the surviving spouse or other relative by whom or on whose behalf request for payment is made, and

2. Affidavit. Such affidavit shows the date of death of the deceased, the relationship of the affiant to the deceased, that no executor or administrator for the deceased has qualified or been appointed, and that, to the affiant's knowledge, there exists at the time of filing of such affidavit, no relative of a closer degree of kindred to the deceased than the affiant, then such payment pursuant to such affidavit shall be deemed to be a payment to the legal representative of the decedent and, regardless of the truth or falsity of the statements made therein, shall constitute a full discharge and release from any further claim for such payment to the same extent as if such payment had been made to an executor or administrator of the decedent's estate.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this Act shall take effect when approved.

Effective April 3, 1967
