PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE
AS PASSED BY THE
One Hundred and Third Legislature
1967

D. Payment, either in full or ratably, of restitution, and of the prisoner's obligations, acknowledged by him in writing or which have been reduced to judgment;

E. The balance, if any, to the prisoner upon his release.

6. Employment in other county. The court may by order authorize the sheriff, to whom the prisoner is committed, to arrange with another sheriff for the employment of the prisoner in the other's county, and while so employed to be in the other's custody, but in other respects to be and continue subject to the commitment.

7. Dependents evaluation of need. The welfare director or the overseers of the poor of the municipality in which the prisoner's dependents reside, or the State Department of Health and Welfare, shall at the request of the court investigate and report to the court, the amount necessary for the support of the prisoner's dependents.

8. Denial of privilege. The sheriff may refuse to permit the prisoner to exercise his privilege to leave the jail as provided in subsection 1 for any breach of discipline or other violation of jail regulations. Any prisoner so disciplined may petition either the District Court or the Superior Court for a review of such disciplinary action. Such court, after review, shall make such order as it deems appropriate.

9. Violations. Any person who willfully violates the terms of his release in relation to the time for reporting back to the county jail may be punished by imprisonment for not more than 60 days.

10. Rules of procedure. Proceedings under this section shall be subject to rules of procedure adopted under Title 4, section 9.

Effective October 7, 1967
