whom shall be a representative of the domestic mutual insurance companies, excluding life insurance companies, one of whom shall be the representative of other companies authorized to do a fire, casualty or surety insurance business in the State and one of whom shall represent the public.

The said board shall meet with the commissioner twice during each year at times and places to be designated by the commissioner, and on such other occasions as its members shall deem appropriate. The commissioner shall furnish to the board such information, not otherwise designated by law as confidential, as its members may reasonably require with respect to the conduct, scope and results of examinations of fire, casualty or surety insurance agents, and the said board shall make at least one written annual report to the commissioner with respect to the matters within its province. In said report, or in addition thereto, the said board shall provide the commissioner with its specific recommendations, from time to time, as to changes in the scope, format and nature of such examinations, as appear to its members desirable and in the best interest of the people of this State and of the fire, casualty or surety insurance business as conducted in this State. The commissioner shall avail himself and his department of all such recommendations and material so furnished by said board, and shall adopt or implement such portions thereof as appear to him appropriate and advisable. The said advisory board may, in addition, consult with the commissioner with respect to possible legislation or regulatory measures designed or intended to improve the quality and nature of the solicitation and servicing of fire, casualty or surety insurance by licensed fire, casualty or surety insurance agents within this State, but nothing herein contained shall be deemed to vest any authority in said board other than on an advisory basis as stated. The written reports of the board shall be matters of public record, and available upon request from the commissioner. The members of said board shall serve without compensation but, with the approval of the commissioner, may be reimbursed for their reasonable travel expenses in attending any meeting called by the commissioner.
